

By W.W. EDGAR

This is the week for which Eddie Lubanski has waited a lifetime.

that included a 267 middle game.

On Thursday, April 22, the curtains over the pits in Cobo Hall will open and Eddie will finish his long walk into bowling's Hall of Fame.

With the white spotlight playing on him, each step he takes will be a step toward the culmination of a dream he had more than 20 years ago when he gave up a baseball career for bowling.

When he reaches the approaches Eddie will be greeted by Joe Norris, former Detroit immortal who is president of the ABC Hall of Fame, and all of the living members of the elite society of legendary figures.

"I have never wanted anything in my whole life, like I wanted this honor," Lubanski stated several weeks ago when informed that he had been chosen. "And that fact that I am being inducted in my home town makes the honor all the greater."

Joining Eddie in the Hall of Fame will be another former Detroit. He is Howard McCullough, one-time branch manager of the Brunswick Co. in Detroit, who is being honored for meritorious service.

The induction ceremonies are scheduled at 8:30 p.m.

ONE OF THE closest races of the season is now coming to a close in the Garden Lanes Classic.

With only a few weeks to bowl B.C. Nunnery is out in front with 207. At that figure he leads Bob Voss by only a single pin. Three pins back is Paul Sterling with 203 and Tom Pane with 202.

Dave Waters' name also is at the lead of the list at 207—but he has bowled only 42 games.

TONY LINDEMANN, who captained the Stroh team for years, still has the magic touch when it comes to finding the pocket.

Bowling in the Classic at Westland, Tony linked games of 182, 237 and 244 for a 663 that was good enough for third place.

Tony Lolacano, one of the younger group, paced the circuit with 276-233-183-694 and Bob Maynard finished in the runnerup spot with a 665.

Stevenson Gets 14 Hits Kalkaska Sorrows Belts To Crush Bentley, 12-5 In Top '20' Lourdes Twice

The Stevenson High bats rang a merry tune Thursday. Fourteen times Stevenson players hit safely—all singles—and it all led to a 12-5 victory over arch-rival Bentley.

Nelson Cady went the route for the winners, hurling his first full game as he scattered nine hits, struck out three and walked one.

STEVENSON GAVE Cady a 4-0 lead in the first inning when Tom See and Russ Isaacs singled and Mike Ges walked to fill the bases and Russ Thomas and Mike Kefer followed with a pair of two-run singles.

Five more runs came across in the second with Frank Gluso and Isaacs each knocked in a run. Gee socked in two and Scott Sachero drilled in another.

In the seventh, singles by Thomas, Kefer and Mark Macy led to another run for Stevenson and in the seventh Gluso singled, along with two walks and a wild pitch to wrap up the Stevenson scoring.

Bentley tallied three times in the second inning on hits by Ken Grant, Bob Sikauskas and Dick Boehm and another in the third when Al Hernandez doubled and Sikauskas singled.

The final Bentley run resulted from a double by Sikauskas and two errors in the sixth innings.

THE LOSS to Stevenson came after Bentley had swept a doubleheader at Port Huron, 17-1 and 4-2.

Brian Dinsmore hurled the opener for Bentley and gave up three hits while he was backed up by some lusty hitting.

John Sprietzer went three-for-three, Sikauskas had a homer and double and knocked in four runs, Ed Levant drove in three runs and scored two himself with a homer and single and Al Hernandez knocked in three runs with two hits.

Bill Duncan hurled the nightcap and also gave up only three hits while fanning five.

All the Bentley runs came in the fifth inning when Grant and Levant singled and Sprietzer was safe on an error to load the bases.

Dave Preston singled in two runs, another scored on Duncan's fielder's choice and the final tally on Boehm's single.

LANSING The National Trout Festival at Kalkaska, April 23 through May 2, has been selected by the Discover America Travel Organizations (DAO) as one of the nation's top 20 travel events for the month of April, according to William T. McGraw, director of the Michigan Tourist Council.

Meantime Bill Walecky had three hits and Bill Centers chipped in with two safe blows.

Centers was the winning pitcher in the nightcap in which Sorrows belted out 20 hits, topped by Centers' three hits which included a triple and a homer. He drove in three runs.

Harte also lashed a triple during the second game.

Sorrows opens its Catholic League season Monday.

Our Lady of Sorrows High's baseball team combined some fine pitching with powerful hitting to blast Lourdes, 6-0 and 20-2, in a non-league doubleheader.

Jim Harte worked six hitless innings in the opener and fanned 11, while Chris Weber finished up for Sorrows.

Opening day turned out to be a happy one for Churchill High's baseball team.

With Gary Sobkowick and Mike Keller combining for a neat pitching job and their mates making the most of four hits, Churchill turned back Highland Park, 10-2, in a non-leaguer.

Sobkowick allowed two hits and fanned six in four innings of work while Keller allowed three hits and fanned four in the remaining three innings. Neither walked a batter.

Steve Chilenko's two hits, one a bases loaded triple, led the Churchill attack. Chilenko's belt came in the fourth inning when Churchill scored three times.

Then in the seventh, hits by Chilenko and Mickey Crom, two errors and Keller's squeeze bunt produced four more runs.
