DETROIT AREA MEN'S COUNCIL
The largest convention of men ever held in the Middle West will assemble in Lansing on April 25, 26 and 27. Early reports indicate a registration of over twenty-five hundred men. Eighteen of the greatest speakers on the North American Continent will address the sessions of the convention. Among these speakers are Ralph Conner, author of the "Sky Pilot," Senator Willis of Ohio; Ex-Governor Sweet of Colorado; Col. Raymond Robins; Bishop Francis McConnell of Pittsburgh; Dr. Merton S. Rice of Detroit; Dr. Charles E. Jefferson of New York City; Ex-Governor Pat Neff of Texas and Bishop Thomas Nicholson of Detroit.

This convention will be known as the Detroit Area Men's Council and it is being led by Dr. Bert Smith of Chicago. Dr. Smith has organized similar conventions in twelve of the great cities of America from New York City to Seattle. Simultaneously with the Lansing convention, a similar program will be presented in Philadelphia. All these meetings are officially under the direction of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

a new finish on all Ford Cars

PYROXYLIN

This remarkable new finish is now standard on all Ford cars. It is practically indestructible. Sun, rain, dust, mud, frost and snow cannot harm it and the beautiful satin surface actually improves with rubbing. It seldom requires washing. A rub with a dry cloth removes all ordinary mud and dust and leaves the finish like new. See this new finish at our showroom.
