 Moved by Hogle, supported by Gildemeister that the Commission act favorably on the petition and that Clarence Bicking be appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Fred L. Cook. Carried yeas, Johnson, Gildemeister and Hogle.

Recessed until Thursday, April 7, 1927.

N. H. POWER, City Clerk.

An English town has an ordinance forbidding the riding of municipal donkeys by persons over 16 years of age. But even that won't prevent some of the older folks from making an ass of themselves occasionally.

PRIZE WINNERS AT HELIKER'S HALL

At the dance at Heliker's Hall, last Saturday night which was attended by 85 Farmington, Southfield and Redford couple, William Pauline carried off the prize for the best dancer of the Varsoviene, H. Coirts for waltzing and Milo Raymond, heel and toe polka.

We ust to poke a lot of fun at Kansas, but we notice a judge out in that state has just fined a woman for taking money from her own husband's pockets.

In 1937 the patent office employed only one clerk. And he was probably kept busy by some cracked brained individual who that some day man would be flying through the air.

WALLED LAKE

Allen Benjamin is building a house on the Spring Lake road near his brother's home.

Robert Rhoades has moved into Dan Bentley's cottage. Charles Bone has moved into the Rhoades house and a Mr. Gilchrist will move onto Charles Bone's farm.
