

MOTHER

Mother means sympathy,
 Mother means love,
 Mother means comradeship true;
 Mother means Faith,
 Which is hers from above;
 But best of all,
 Mother means you.

A WORD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to the people of Farmington who have so cordially greeted us and so whole-heartedly assisted us in our first week of publishing the Enterprise. We are especially grateful to our advertisers for the early preparation of their copy.
 For the errors and omissions of this issue, we ask your kind indulgence.

BOND SCHOOL GROUNDS

WILL BE LANDSCAPED Plans for landscaping the grounds for the Isaac Bond school were revealed to members of the Parent Teacher Association and visitors, Tuesday afternoon. The beauty of the grounds will be enhanced by shrubbery and plants,
 Mr. Bond said.

The pupils of Miss Leaneore Shepley, primary room, gave a splendid program.

Mrs. Norma Gould, president, gave an interesting report on the convention in Flint.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday evening, May 25.

LIBRARY NOTES

Patrons will please return all books past due to the library.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the teachers and school children, officers and members of the Eastern Star, the organizations of the Baptist church, the many friends and Rev.
 E. W. Palmer, who were so kind to us in our recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Taggart and family.
