

Sound Of Music Coming To Churches Bible College Names Dr. Johnston Director

Two churches in this area will entertain The Harmonies in a program titled "The Sound of Music" this weekend. The student musicians, whose school is located at Siloam Springs, Ark., will appear at 8 p.m. Friday, July 12, in the Southfield Community Church, 2122 Indian, Southfield, and in Covenant Community Church, 28800 Student, Redford Township, at 7 p.m. Sunday, July 14.

The Harmonies are made up of 11 members, both fellows and girls, who will combine in mixed quartets, trios, duets, and solos. The program will be varied by the addition of instrumental numbers and testimonials.

The group is on an extensive tour covering cities in Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, Virginia, Washington D.C., Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Missouri. This tour will last through the middle of August.

John Brown University is an interdenominational Christian college, accredited by the North Central Association and offering instruction in many fields. Each student receives training in general education, religion, and his own major field.

Elizabeth First To Grant Degree

The College of Saint Elizabeth, near Morrisstown, N.J., was the first Catholic college in the United States to grant degrees to women. It is conducted by the Sisters of Charity.

The appointment of Dr. Wendell G. Johnston as president of Detroit Bible College is announced by Dr. M. C. Patterson, Chairman of the Board of Directors. For the past four years Dr. Johnston has been academic dean at Washington Bible College, Washington, D.C.

Dr. Patterson also announced that Dr. William A. DeVier, who has served as interim president of DBC during the past year, has been named executive vice president of the College.

Dr. Johnston, who succeeds Dr. Roy L. Aldrich, will assume the duties of his new office on or about September 1, 1968. Dr. Aldrich retired in June 1967, after having been president of the College since its founding in 1945.

"WE FEEL it is a great privilege to have a man of Dr. Johnston's character and stature assume the leadership of Detroit Bible College," Dr. Patterson declared. "He brings to this position a wealth of knowledge of Christian Education as well as valuable experience as a pastor and teacher," Dr. Patterson emphasized that Dr. Johnston's appointment would bring no change in the conservative tradition of DBC. Included in Dr. Johnston's educational background is a B.A. degree from Bob Jones University, Greenville, South Carolina, and a Th.M. degree from Dallas Theological Seminary, Dallas, Texas. The seminary also awarded him a Th.D. degree with highest honors in 1961.

A NATIVE of Erie, Pa., he formerly pastored churches in Indiana and Texas. Dr. Johnston, who is 38 years of age, is a member of the Executive Council of the Central American Mission, Dallas, Texas. Widely traveled, he has visited various mission fields abroad and has also toured both Italy and Europe.

The new president and his wife, Martha, are the parents of three sons, James, Benjamin, and Robert. They plan to move soon to the Detroit area.

DR. BEVIER, who joined Detroit Bible College in 1959, has held various posts at the College including registrar, dean of education, and interim president.

His extensive academic preparation was made in schools in the Midwest and Southwest. He graduated from Drury College, Springfield, Mo., with an A. B. degree. In addition, he earned his M. A. degree from Dallas Theological Seminary. The seminary then engaged Dr. Bevier as an instructor while he continued studies at Southern Methodist University. He received an M. A. degree from S. M. U. in 1960. He is presently pursuing advanced theological education at Wayne State University, Detroit.

Dr. Bevier, formerly the pastor of Everton Presbyterian Church, Everton, Mo., served in the Marine Corps during World War II and the Korean War. Currently a member of the Army Reserve, he serves as Divisional Chaplain for the 70th Division in Livonia.

Dr. Bevier and his wife, Jo Ann, have two daughters, Cindy and Shirley. They live in Detroit.

WILL PRESENT PROGRAM—An ensemble representing the St. Paul Bible College, St. Paul, Minn., will present a program at the Northwest Church of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, 28111 W. Ten Mile, Farmington, at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. The program will include solos, duets, trios, mixed ensembles, and violin, vibraphone and trombone instrumentals. Marvin Thompson is director. There will be no admission charge, and the public is invited.

Jews Open Living Rosary For Peace Campaign

For Million

Leaders of Greater Detroit's Conservative Jews have launched a major effort to raise one million dollars toward a $35 million national capital drive which will help the Jewish Theological Seminary of America expand its services and build new academic, library, and residence facilities at its main campus in New York City.

Spearheaded by Abraham Borman and Louis Berry, nationally prominent Detroit philanthropists who serve on the seminary's board of overseers, the local campaign was inaugurated on June 26 with a private reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hamburger in Birmingham.

IN ADDITION to Borman and Berry, those attending the reception and participating in the campaign include Alfred L. Danesh, Philip Feigenbaum, Ben Goldberg, N.Y. Greenhouse, Rabbi Irwin Groer, Samuel Hamburger, Joseph Holtzman, Morris Karbal, Rabbi Moses Lehmann, David M. Miro, Robert Ruch, David Safran, Samuel B. Solomon, Peter Weisberg, and Benjamin Weiss.

Dr. Max Artz, the seminary's vice-chancellor, underscored the outmodedness of the seminary's crowded facilities, pointing out, as he addressed the gathering, that a single brick had been added to the present physical plant since 1930.

He also stressed the need for endowments, professorships, lectureships, and fellowships, to prevent the loss of seminary scholars to other institutions of learning.

At his schools in New York, Los Angeles, and Jerusalem, The Seminary trains rabbis, cantors, Hebrew teachers, youth leaders and other service to the American Jewish community.

Family Life Teacher Sets Talks

Duane Cuthbertson, Family Life teacher in the Ann Arbor school system will speak to the teens each night Monday through Friday, July 15-19, on personally dynamics under the heading "The Christian Teen Finding Himself."

Following the talks, the teens will divide into junior high and high school groups for evenings for the rest of the summer, the junior high under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Westerman, and Mrs. Mavis Margitich, and the high school under the leadership of Mrs. Douglas Bayne, and Mrs. Douglas Bayne.

The second week of Vacation Bible School at the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian, will feature a special program for teens and adults.

The adults will meet with The Rev. Bayne, pastor, for a Bible study from 7 to 8 p.m. each night and they will gather with them on 8 to 9 p.m. "What Have I Missed?" is the theme for the adult talks.

The other departments of the school for children from nursery through sixth grade will continue the Bible study program of the Rev. Bayne. Mrs. Wilbert Graft is superintendent of the Bible school assisted by Mrs. Ronald Berner.

A closing program will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, July 19.

Livonian Earns Divinity Degree

Ronald W. Tallman, a 1961 graduate of Livonia Bentley High School, recently was awarded his bachelor of divinity degree from Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas.

The Rev. Tallman received his bachelor of arts degree in 1955 from Albion College after majoring in chemistry. While at Albion he was a member of Kappa Epsilon mathematics honorary and of Tau Kappa Epsilon social fraternity.

He chose to spend his three years of graduate work at the Texas seminary so that he might "come to a better understanding of the people and culture of a different part of the country."

The new clergyman served as the pastor of Childs United Methodist Church in east Texas and was appointed associate minister of Central United Methodist Church at Pontiac after receiving his degree.

Romans Chose Christianity

Before the end of the fourth century Christianity became the state religion of the Roman Empire.

Jewish Seminary Naming Chair For Rabbi Adler

The Jewish Theological Seminary of America will establish an academic chair in the name of the late Rabbi Morris Adler of Detroit, it was announced by Dr. Louis Finkelstein, chancellor, during the institution's 74th annual commencement.

Dr. Adler was spiritual leader of Congregation Shaarey Zedek, Southfield, until his tragic death in March, 1965, after being shot by a deranged young congregant during a Sabbath service.

"The Morris Adler Chair in Rabbinics has been established on the initiative of the faculty and board of directors as a fitting memorial to one of the seminary's most distinguished alumni," Dr. Finkelstein said.

Dr. Adler, the author of two books on the Torah and the Talmud, was himself well versed in Bible commentaries. The first holder of the chair in his name will be Dr. Moses Zucker, professor of Bible commentaries on the seminary faculty.
