

Plymouth Club Meets April 22

Mrs. Maria Pietrzyba will speak on "Junk Art" at a meeting of the Mayflower Garden Club Thursday, April 22, at 10 a.m.

The meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Edwin Ash, 333 Pacific Street, Plymouth. Mrs. Pietrzyba is from Ann Arbor.

Bulman Nursery Meets April 22

Dr. Robert Burge, a pediatrician, will be guest speaker at Bulman Nursery's next meeting, at 8 p.m., Thursday, April 22.

The meeting will be in St. Paul Presbyterian Church, Five Mile and Inkster Roads, Livonia.

Beauty Spot

Orton Plantation, one of the beauty spots of the south, abounds with flowers during spring and summer near Wilmington, N.C.

The nursery is accepting applications for the fall season for three and four-year-old children. Interested parents may call Mrs. James B. Fisher, 1760 Stamwich, Livonia.

Hair Stylist Offers Jewelry Design Contest

New Blow-Dry Cut Offers $3,000 Prize

A Japanese hair stylist, Tomo, will demonstrate his blow-dry, layered cut in three area Jacobson stores, beginning the week of April 26.

Tomo will spend two days each in Jacobson's in Dearborn, Birmingham and Grosse Pointe, where "corners" have been set aside for his work. In Dearborn, he will be in the Miss J Shop.

Appointments should be made by calling the beauty salon in each store.

THIS IS THE first time Tomo has left his New York salon for such demonstrations. During the week of April 19, he will train area hairdressers in his styling techniques.

Tomo's natural element is among the young and his hair-styles are well suited to the garb and living styles of today.

When styling is complete, his long-haired young clients may be instantly restored by simply shaking the head or running one's fingers through it.

HIS TECHNIQUE consists of shampoos, conditioners, but and arful drying. He creates quick and lasting effects with blowers, heat curlers and heat combs.

Currently he also encourages the all-over curly look based on a carefully layered cut.

Tomo does hair for layouts in major fashion publications.

Rose Jewelers is sponsoring the area's first jewelry design contest open to all Detroit and suburban art and metal working high school students.

Students participating in this "first of a kind" contest will have an opportunity of winning $3,000 toward their initial year of college art study. Six other students will receive honorable mention prizes.

"There exists a vast unlocked storehouse of creativity among our high school art students," said David Rose in discussing the company's unusual contest. "We feel that youthful imagination can create new and wonderful things in the jewelry field."

Contest entry forms and rule sheets are available through art or metal working teachers or from any Rose Jewelers Store.

the competition are asked to create an original jewelry design and submit either the finished piece of jewelry or a sketch of the design with a procedure description to any Rose Jewelers Store before the June 1 contest deadline.

Contest entry forms and rule sheets are available through art or metal working teachers or from any Rose Jewelers Store.

Diabetics Study

The Livonia Unit of the Michigan Diabetes Association will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 21, in Mt. Hope Congregational Church, 30330 Schoolcraft, Livonia.

Guest speaker will be Betty Brosius, director of nutrition for the Michigan Diabetes Association. Her subject will be "What's On the Label?", and she will discuss reading and understanding food labels. She will illustrate her talk with slides, and photos taken last year at Camp Midicha, the Association's summer camp for youngsters with diabetes, also will be shown.

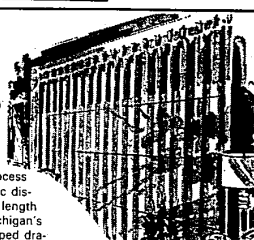

A question period will follow Miss Brosius' talk. The public is invited to attend without charge. Free literature about diabetes will be available.
