LADIES' AID SOCIETY OF BAPTIST CHURCH

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist Church held their meeting and a public luncheon Thursday with very good attendance.

A very enjoyable talk was given by Miss Curtland who was a missionary in China for 34 years and who had just returned to the United States.

The next meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist Church will be a June lawn party to be given on the lawn of Mrs. A. C. McDonald on June 2.

There will be a public luncheon and a business meeting in the afternoon.

Wonder who it is who fixes the value of these so-called 100 per cent Americans?

We see where rifle clubs are becoming popular with the girls. Why go to all that trouble when one can generally find an extra window sash weight any time they want to bump off friend husband.
