

WHERE ARE YOUR VALUABLE PAPERS?

Are you certain that you could instantly lay your hands upon any valuable papers you possess—bonds, insurance policy, deed, mortgage, etc?

Memory plays tricks; drawers and pigeon holes involve high risk of loss by fire and theft.

Keep your valuable papers in our burglar-proof and fire-proof vault and you will know where they are and know that they are safe. The rental fee is so small as to be negligible.

N. H. POWER REPORTS TO EXCHANGE CLUB ON AIR CONVENTION

"Aviation is the safest method of travel today, and will be used more and more in the next few years," was the message brought to the Farmington Exchange club Wednesday at the weekly luncheon by N. H. Power, who went as representative of the club to a recent aviation congress in Detroit.

"England is building airplanes to carry 100 passengers each to Canada, Australia and Africa," was another interesting report of Mr. Power, from speeches at the congress. The speakers, he stated, stressed the desirability of every city having at least one airport, and in support of this suggestion, cited the fact that the present air lines with regular schedules, have more traffic than they can handle.

John Clark reported on the recent fishing trip to Skeleton Lake, Canada, participated in by ten Farmington men.

Discussion was brought up regarding the parking by business men of their own cars on the main streets for long periods, and failure to use the free parking space.

The meeting next Wednesday will end the weekly gatherings for the summer, the club to resume its meetings in September.
