BAPTIST VACATION

BIBLE SCHOOL

The Vacation Bible School, being conducted in the Baptist church for all boys and girls who wish to come, is a wonderful success. The school has entered upon its second week with more than fifty children in attendance. Two separate gatherings are held each morning. The primary group ages 5 to 8, under the able leadership of Alma Weston and Ruth Schroeder meet in the side rooms where they lead the children in worship and songs, fitting to their experience. Stories are told and retold. The child is given plenty of opportunity for expression in play and handwork.

The Junior group, ages 9 to 14 meet in the church proper. The first 20 minutes are given to worship in song and prayer. Each morning one of the teachers tells in story form some trait of character that is worth developing. Memory work has an important part in the program, when the boys and girls memorize whole chapters of scripture. The youngsters seem to enjoy their periods of catechisms and bible games.

The children are taught how to interpret and how to sing the grand old hymns of the church. Much time is put to telling and dramatizing bible stories. "McGee Hill" furnishes ideal surroundings for the acting out of some of the bible stories.

In handwork the boys are making tie racks and envelop holders while the girls are making luncheon cloths.

On Friday night, July 22 at 7:45 in the Baptist church there will be a public demonstration of how such a school is conducted and an exhibit of all hand work. Parents and friends of the children are invited, also any others who wish to come.

The school will continue each morning of this and next week. The children come from all the Sunday Schools and one or more Sunday Schools and one or more helpers from each church, so the school has a community spirit which is most acceptable.

Ring Oddly Returned

When R. W. Ferguson of Los Angeles had his engagement ring, returned to him, he tossed it on his dresser, beside the wedding ring that was to be. The following night the rings were gone. A week passed. One night when Ferguson returned home he surprised two youths in his room, one in the act of donning his best pair of trousers. The intruders fled, abandoning a ragged pair of pants. An examination revealed the missing rings in one of the pockets.
