wood creek farms

By ANNE M. PHILLIPS MA 6-6335

This has been a week of extremes for Wood Creek, a wedding and two funerals. Tom Tyghem's wedding date had been set many weeks ago for Saturday, April 24. The bride and groom then left for warmer weather in Hawaii.

The wedding was followed by a reception and wedding luncheon in the Oakland Hills Country Club.

On Wednesday, April 21, Jim Kay was golfing and as he was teeing off at one hole, he dropped dead of a heart attack.

Just a short time before, Jim had had a physical and the cardiogram was perfectly satisfactory. We have lost a very valued person.

He was at Haley's Funeral Home on Northwestern Highway when the funeral service was held on Wednesday, April 23. A goodly contingent of Wood Creekers went from the wedding in Our Lady of Sorrows Church to the funeral. Burial was at Glen Eden Memorial Park. Our deepest sympathy goes to Lee and the children.

At 11:30 a.m. April 23, our son, his wife, and his youngest son reached our house. They had driven on from Consook, N.H. that day, taking time to visit Niagara Falls. We had three delightful days with them before they made a 6 a.m. start back east on Monday. Now it is quiet here and is lonely.

Be sure to go to the public hearing Monday, May 3 at 8 p.m. in the Sarah Fisher Home!
