Music Program Coming May 8

Nash conducting the workshop, to be held at Radcliff Junior High School in Garden City.

Mrs. Nash is author of "Music with Children" and has a nationwide reputation in music education, said Miss Loupatti Miller, Garden City vocal music teacher.

The May 8 program, which has a $4 registration fee, will start at 9:30 a.m. with a presentation and workshop. Following lunch, the workshop will continue from 1:15 to 4 p.m.

Registration will be held from 9:30 a.m. the day of the program. Radcliff Junior High is adjacent to West High School, just south and west of the Ford Rd.-Radcliff intersection. The demonstration will show "a creative approach to the teaching of music which involves a music centered, humanizing process that develops the complete individual through cooperation rather than competition."

MRS. GRACE NASH

The program will be highlighted by Mrs. Grace Nash, author of "Music with Children" and has a nationwide reputation in music education, said Miss Loupatti Miller, Garden City vocal music teacher.

Starr Will Be Honored

Floyd Starr, founder of the Starr Commonwealth for Boys, Albert, will be honored on his birthday with an open house Monday, May 3, from 2 until 6 p.m.

The tea is being sponsored by the Auxiliaries of the Commonwealth, including the Farmington Auxiliary headed by Mrs. Judy Zahler, 26178 Greythorne Trail, Farmington.

The Farmington Auxiliary is also planning a luncheon and fashion show Thursday, May 6, in the Holiday Inn, Farmington. Those wishing to attend should contact Mrs. Zahler.

Bride Wears Mother's Gown

Linda Kay Arnold wore her mother's wedding gown and veil when she became the bride of Paul C. Densmore in an evening ceremony March 12 in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Catholic Church in Beverly Hills.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Arnold of Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Densmore of Plymouth are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Arnold Kosco officiated, and the bride's father escorted her to the altar.

MRS. PAUL C. DENSMORE (Linda Kay Arnold)

The best man was Thomas Abbott. The bride's brothers, Walter and Jay Densmore, seated the guests.

MRS. ARNOLD chose a pink brocade gown for the occasion, and Mrs. Densmore was in an apricot peau de soie gown with a white chantilly lace bodice.

The Knights of Columbus hall in Southfield was scene of the reception for 200 guests. The couple went to Fort Lauderdale for a two-week honeymoon before returning to a home in Plymouth.

Both are graduates of Plymouth High School. The new Mrs. Densmore attended Michigan State University. Her husband attended Schoolcraft Community College and is employed by Kopy-Densmore Builders in Plymouth.

Hudson, and Mrs. Edwin Ott, Thurston; Mrs. Arne Fones, Mrs. R.V. Jaynes and Mrs. Sander DeHann, Redford Union; and Robert Mosely, Garden City West.

Bob Hyman, host of TV's "Morning Show" will emcee the program, for which tickets may be purchased from local AFS chapters.

Proceeds will help support the AFS International Scholarship Program.

This year 34 AFSers representing 23 countries are in 23 Detroit metropolitan area schools. In Michigan there are 44 AFS students from 26 countries, and in the U.S. there are 2,700 teenagers from 63 countries who are spending their senior year of high school with American families.

AFS also has been active with AFS Abroad program which enables outstanding students from U.S. high schools to spend a summer or school year in a foreign country.
