Plymouth Symphony Plays Top 'Pops' May 8

Remembering should be a lot of fun Saturday evening, May 8, when the Plymouth Symphony celebrates its 25th birthday at its ever-popular Pops Concert.

The concert will begin at 8:30 in Central High School, Main St., Plymouth. A few tickets are still available at Melody House, Penland St., Plymouth, at $2.50 for cabaret tables and $1.25 for the bleachers.

On hand to help remember will be the symphony's first conductor, Paul Wagner, now at Basking Ridge, N. J., junior high school principal, and another conductor, Emil Raab. Raab took over the symphony for one year while the present conductor Wayne Dunlap, was in Europe. Raab is currently teaching at Bowling Green State College, Bowling Green, Ohio.

THEY WILL SHARE the podium with Dunlap in a concert which will feature the "pick of the pops," the most popular songs in 25 years of concerts. This anniversary year marks Dunlap's 20th year as the symphony's conductor.

There will also be two guest soloists, Nat Sibbold of Plymouth and Norman Fischer of Oberlin (Ohio) College.

Sibbold, a baritone, will sing a group of songs entitled "Reminiscences of Things Past," including the "Toreador Song," from Bizet's "Carmen," and ending with "Those Were the Days." Sibbold's days with the orchestra started 20 years ago, when he first guested with it. He has been a popular soloist ever since.

Fischer, a senior at Oberlin, started his career as a cellist when he attended Bird Elementary School in Plymouth. He was encouraged by Dunlap. Saturday he will play "Rococo Variations" "Variations on a Boccaccio Theme" by Tchaikovsky.

He is the son of Gerald Fischer, a former president of the symphony society, who is expected to attend the concert along with Mrs. Fischer, and other symphony fans who have moved away from Plymouth. They include Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jenkins, like the Fischers now living in Connecticut, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Adams, from Illinois.

A NUMBER OF surprises are planned for the program, including a special birthday one.

Another surprise will be the presentation of the "Lenore Overture 3.7," arranged by orchestra member Max Stroup. It is billed as "Beethoven to end all Beethovens."

The program will open with "The Anniversary Waltz," as arranged by Deal Fischer.
