Civil War Is Aquatic Theme

The Clarencville High School Catalina Swim Club will present a water show May 13-14 at 8 p.m. in the pool of the high school, located on Middle Belt Road between Seven and Eight Mile Roads.

The theme will be America during the early 1860s and the title is "Sounds of Distant Drums." A team of 22 girls and five boys will depict the Civil War in an aquatic display.

Highlight will be a group of Minstrels wearing black uniforms, white gloves and white derbys made of a luminescent material, performing under a "black light."

A solo will be done by Janice Mills (senior), a duet by Lori Prisk (junior) and Cheryl Rossow (sophomore), and a trio by Gay Ryzinski (sophomore), Brenda Timte and Jackie Johnson. A group of eight girls will do a specialty act.

The boys do acts and dives including a "horse and rider"
