

Harrison claims 2nd tennis title

week's tournament outright. "Tying was not good enough to be co-champs," Croll said. Harrison won only one flight, number 3 singles, where junior Lisa Tomlin averaged a regular season defeat to Stevenson's Laura DiBailo, the top seed, 6-2, 6-1.

"It was a team effort, but Lisa's match was the deciding one," Goldstein said. "That was a key match. Going in we just tried to inspire her. We told her the whole journey depended on her match. We pumped her up."

Harrison reached the finals in three other flights: Julie Heist, number 2 singles; Jill Barringer, number 3 singles; and Melissa Prendergast and Barb Uterback, number 3 doubles. All four are juniors.

The Hawks also picked up two points each at number 1 singles (Stephanie Schwall), number 1 doubles (Kristi Corwell and Jodie Whitehead) and number 2 doubles (Alissa Bamback and Amy Tobie). Stevenson, meanwhile, dominated the doubles bracket, capturing all three flights.

THIRD SEEDS Laura Perry and Courtney Richa, both seniors, won the No. 1 doubles with a 7-5, 6-4 win over Northville's upstart duo of Sandy Bouscher and Stacy Green. Stevenson's number 2 doubles tandem, the Bailey sisters, lived up to their top seeding. Karen, a junior, and Lori, a senior, breezed to a 6-1, 6-1 win over unseeded Kelli Woodsum and Jodi Buttlage, also of Northville.

Seniors Tanya Karlinger and Erin Phillips, Stevenson's top seeds at number 3 doubles, defeated Prendergast and Uterback, 6-3, 6-1, for the Spartans' third title.

"Stevenson has always been good in doubles," Goldstein said. "It's something George (Croll) emphasizes a little more than we do."

The other WLAA champions included Livonia Franklin's Tanya Berner (see related story) of Livonia Franklin at number 1 singles and Plymouth Canton's Ellen Gaston at number 4.

Gaston helped Canton to a fifth place finish in the team standings by defeating Barringer, 3-6, 6-3, 6-1, in the final.

Glenn duo KO's Raiders

basketball

Westland John Glenn's one-two punch of Carrie Rachwal and Kristi Zimmer was too much Thursday for host North Farmington in a Western Lakes Activities Association girls basketball encounter.

Rachwal (senior guard) scored a game-high 24 points and Zimmer (senior center) added 17 as the Rockets posted a 57-32 win.

Glenn outscored the Raiders in every quarter except the second (10-10 tie).

Rachwal hit three three-pointers in the opening period as Glenn jumped out to a 17-9 advantage. It was 27-19 at the half and 44-25 after three quarters.

Senior guard Karen Seremet tallied 10 points and sophomore forward Carey Perkins grabbed 13 rebounds in a losing cause. Perkins, Danielle Laborde and Becky Macek chipped in five points apiece for the Raiders.

North is 3-7 overall and 2-3 in the WLA, while Glenn upped its mark to 7-4 and 3-2.

STEVENSON 49, FARMINGTON 38: Livonia Stevenson ran its overall record to 9-1 and remained unbeaten in WLA action Thursday against the host Falcons.

Senior center Teresa Sarno tossed in a game-high 22 points to lead the Spartans, 5-0 in the league and 9-1 overall.

Sophomore guard Mo Drabick also proved to be a born in Farmington's side with 11 rebounds, nine assists, seven points and six steals.

Stevenson led 24-14 at intermission before going on a 19-4 run in the third quarter.

Farmington, which shot 24 percent from the field, was led by junior forward Tammy Allen's 21 points and 11 rebounds. Freshman guard Andrea Saylor added six points. FRANKLIN 62, HARRISON 45: All 10 players scored Thursday as host Livonia Franklin (4-1 in the WLA, 10-1) had little trouble with Farmington Hills Harrison.

Veteran guards Dawa Warner and Patty Shea spearheaded the Patriot assault.

Warner tallied a game-high 25 points to go along with 13 rebounds, and Shea added 12 points, six assists and five steals.

"Warner is a great team player in that she gets the other players involved," Harrison coach Pete Mantyla said.

Franklin's junior center Karen Potempa held Harrison's high-scoring center Heather Hopkins to one field goal in the first quarter.

Freshman Krista Snow paced the Hawks with 12 points and eight rebounds, while Hopkins contributed 10 points and eight boards. Harrison is 5-5 and 3-8.

Marlins upset Marian, share lead

Forward Michele Coughlin added 12 points and center Tara Walsh nine for the Mustangs, who played without forward Judy Stuart, who suffered a broken arm earlier in the week.

"JUDY AVERAGES nine points, but it affects our chemistry and continuity. It's not there," Little-Cicerone said. "If you had seen us play the last two games, it would have been a different team."

It was difficult for Little-Cicerone to say if Stuart would have made a difference, but Mercy dominated the boards, 35-16. Heniewicz, who got the Marlins started with her outside shooting in the first quarter and scored 12 points, had 13 rebounds and DeMattia 10.

"Mercy outshined us and beat us," Little-Cicerone said. "For the way we played, we stayed in the game but I don't know how. They got every loose ball."

Mercy's rebounding and rotation of rested defenders on Storen helped offset a three-quarter-court press and trapping defense that bothered the Marlins throughout the game.

Mercy had 30 turnovers.

Baker alternated Valerie Jones, Natalie Cichonski, Brooks and Zandra Simmons defensively against Storen, who had one second-half field goal and eight points on free throws.

"It was a great team effort," Baker said. "It was 32 minutes of down and dirty defense. We went out and won it. In fact, we almost gave it to them with our poor free throw shooting (missed three front ends) in the fourth quarter."

With DeMattia and Storen on the bench with two early fouls, Mercy jumped in front, 16-7 in the first quarter and led 24-19 at halftime.

Storen tied it (29-29) in the third, but the Marlins scored the next eight points and led 38-31 at the end. Mercy went 5-0 without a field goal in the fourth period, and Marian made eight straight free throws (four by Storen) to tie again (39-39) with 4:42 to play.

Former CC tennis coach Garlicki dies

By Steve Kowalski staff writer

Frank Garlicki, who coached the Redford Catholic Central boys tennis team to two Class A state titles, died of a heart attack Tuesday night at his home in Redford.

He was 52.

Garlicki was the Shamrocks' tennis coach for more than 20 years until he resigned because of health reasons after the 1990 season. Garlicki's teams won 11 Class A regional titles, starting with the first under his reign in 1988.

The Shamrocks were state champions in 1985 and '86 and also won four Catholic League titles ('71, '81, '84 and '87) under Garlicki.

CC Athletic director Bob Santello remembers

Garlicki as a fine coach and teacher who cared about his students. Garlicki was the chairman of the social studies department at CC and taught most of the department's advanced placement courses, Santello said.

Garlicki also was known as one of the most renowned debate coaches in the state and the country.

GARLICKI COACHED several all-state players, including Steve Campbell, a four-time state champion who graduated in 1988 and now plays at Rice University.

The body will be cremated and there will be no wake. A memorial Mass for Garlicki will be held at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at Catholic Central. Santello said. Burial will be held on a date yet to be determined, Santello said, at St. Hedwig Cemetery in Dearborn Heights.

Swimmers fare well

Despite losing the meets, Farmington Harrison and Farmington were successful in their own right Thursday night in girls swimming.

Harrison had some good individual performances in 119-67 loss to host Plymouth Canton, and Farmington won six events in competition with mighty Livonia Stevenson (ranked No. 4 in Class A). The Spartans won 107-79.

Becky Weary was a double winner for Farmington with first place in the 200-yard freestyle (2:08.08) and the butterfly (1:51.83).

Kelley Komula won the individual medley (2:39.05) and had a personal best of 6:20.1 to finish second in the 500 freestyle, which teammate Kim Seed won with her best effort (5:48.05).

The Falcons also won the 100 freestyle with Jill Hawkins (57.47) and diving with Nicole Gerwatowski, who recorded 191.70 points.

Harrison winners were Veronica Forberger in the 50 freestyle (26.87), Stacey Krause in the backstroke (1:05.82) and Dana Dizon in the breaststroke (1:14.98). Forberger's time was a personal best.

"I'm not concerned with the score," Harrison coach Terese Button-Peterson said. "All the kids swam well, and we had a lot of time drops."

Lisa Schaner of Farmington was third in the backstroke with a good time of 1:11.9.
