

police/fire calls

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police, fire departments, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week:

• FELONIOUS ASSAULT

A 15-year-old Harrison High School student was hurt when a car swerved in front of the high school, 29995 12 Mile, Oct. 9, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

The youth told police he was standing on the curb of a traffic circle in front of the school when a black Pontiac, driven by a man described as about 35 years old, swerved toward him. The car's mirror and passenger door struck the youth, who was treated and released at Botsford General Hospital.

The car, which had two female passengers in the back seat, made a second pass past the youth. The driver, according to the youth, shouted,

• MOTOR HOME FIRE

Damage was estimated at $2,000 after fire broke out in the engine of a motor home traveling north on I-275, south of 10 Mile, Oct. 8, according to a Farmington Hills fire report.

The fire had been partially extinguished when firefighters arrived. The owner told firefighters the motor home had just been in service for repairs.

• CAR FIRE

An engine compartment fire resulted in $2,000 damage to a car owned by Corrigan Moving Systems, 23923 Research Drive, Oct. 8, according to a Farmington Hills fire report.

The driver told firefighters that the car stalled at Halsted and Nine Mile, but restarted without problems. The car also had just been serviced.

• INDECENT EXPOSURE

An 11-year-old newspaper delivery boy reported a man standing on Herliage Lane north of Drake Road in Farmington Hills urinating in public Sept. 25, making no effort to cover himself. Police reports said the subject is believed to be an emotionally disturbed student in the Farmington schools special education program.

• OVENS TAKEN

Eight microwave ovens were reported stolen from two different times during the past week from Chatham Hills apartments.

According to Farmington Department of Public Safety reports, the nearly $1,000 worth of ovens were taken mostly from vacant apartment units. Reports were made Oct. 3-4, but managers told police they believed the ovens may have been stolen more than one month ago.

• THEFTS REPORTED

A generator, telecopier machine and gas can valued at $2,330 were reported stolen from Paragon Underwriters, 32901 Middletown, Oct. 2-9.

A rifle and 12-gauge shotgun valued at $300 were reported stolen from a house on Tulane, Oct. 9.

A watch valued at $1,400 was reported stolen from a 1989 BMW parked at Franklin Hills Country Club, 31675 Inkster, Oct. 9.

A leather jacket valued at $200 was reported stolen from the Shell station at Grand River and Power road Oct. 7-8.

• DAMAGE REPORTED

Paint on a car parked at Dunleavy's Pub & Grub, 34050 Grand River, was scratched, causing some $95 in damage Oct. 5.
