

Hawk Snow flurry blankets Chargers

Krista Snow played her best game of the year Thursday and led Farmington Hills Harrison to a girls basketball victory over host Livonia Churchill, 43-37.

The freshman forward scored 15 points and grabbed 15 rebounds for the Hawks, who finish 2-9 in the Western Lakes Activities Association and 5-12 overall.

Snow scored 14 of her points in the first half as Harrison built a 23-15 lead. The Chargers outscored the Hawks 22-15 in the second half.

"Krista really stepped up," Harrison coach, Pete Mantyla said. "She was real aggressive on defense. Everyone keys on Heather Hopkins, and when Krista plays aggressively it gives us a big boost."

Hopkins, a junior center, scored 10 points and landed 12 rebounds. The Hawks will be host to Farmington in the first round of the W.L.A.A. playoffs this week.

None of the Farmington schools are eligible for the playoffs, however. The top eight teams qualify. North Farmington finished ninth, Farmington 10th and Harrison 11th.

Junior guard Christy Daly had 13 points to lead Churchill, senior center Julie Campau nine points and eight rebounds. The Chargers are 0-11 and 5-12.

MERCY 55, FOLEY 23: The Marlins held Madison Heights Bishop Foley to 13 points through three quarters Thursday and coasted in their first-round Catholic League playoff game.

Mercy (11-4) will play Harper Woods Regina at 6 p.m. Thursday in the semifinals at Calhoun Hall on the University of Detroit-Mercy campus. Detroit DePorres and Birmingham Marian play at 7:30 p.m. in the other game.

Senior center Laura DeMatia paced the Marlins in their win over Foley with 20 points and nine rebounds.

Senior guard Kathleen Berrigan scored nine points and passed for nine assists, and senior forward Mary Bleniewicz chipped in 10 points. Joy Nagy had eight points to lead the Ventures (7-9).

Mercy led 29-10 at halftime, and DeMatia scored 12 of 18 points in the third quarter as the Marlins increased their lead to 47-13.

"We went after them," Mercy coach Larry Baker said. "They Herrington said. "After that, we were able to put the game away. All the seniors played with a lot of poise."

THE HAWKS drove 78 yards in 12 plays to score early in the second half. On third-down-33 from the Toledo 40, senior quarterback Andy Fitzpatrick hit Granger on screen pass. After one spin and a cut to the middle, Granger was gone. Before scoring, Granger turned around at the 5-yard line and back-peddled into the end zone.

"I was alone and I just wanted to see if anyone was behind me," Granger said.

Toledo's offense stalled again at its own 20. With the wind against them, the Irish attempted a fake punt, which was fumbled by the Hawks. Harrison took over at the CC 15. On the next play, Granger scored the final points on a 15-yard sweep.

The silyng Harrison defense held the Irish to 104 yards. Senior linebacker Mike Pescl led the defense with 11 tackles. Senior tackle John Spiza had nine and senior Chad Han and junior David Gietzner added eight apiece. The Hawks gained a total of 318 yards.

"This has been a bit of a down year for us, but we have some good kids coming along," Falke said. "I would like to keep Harrison on our schedule, but I don't know if it will be possible. The people here are classy and very gracious."

"We play some teams close to the caliber of Harrison, but for the size of school Harrison is, they have quite a bit of talent. We play teams as good as Harrison, but they are much bigger schools."

The Raiders rebounded in the second half, taking the kickoff and going 49 yards in 14 plays to make the score 12-7. The drive consumed 7 1/2 minutes and ended with Jack Bula running the final 8 yards and Adam Chalmers kicking the extra point. Anderson had 103 yards in the second half.

With the wind at his back and seconds left in the third quarter, North threw a bomb, but it was intercepted. The Raiders got the ball back to begin their final drive after stopping South Lyon on fourth-and-one.

"They're a good team," Schelstke said. "They're in the playoffs, and we might face each other down the road. They took Harrison to OT, so you know they're no slouch."

North rushed for 155 yards and gained a total of 191. Mark Temple was 2-of-7 passing for 26.

Van Dike and Scott Bjerkle thwarted Farmington scoring drives in the second quarter with interceptions, but RU could not capitalize.

"These kids did a whole lot for not having a lot," McGowan said. "We had a great season, and with a couple of breaks here and there, we could have been 8-1. They showed great character. They never quit."

Shamrocks lose bid for Catholic crown

By Steve Kowalski
staff writer

Charles Winters can throw a 90 mph fastball, but on Sunday night his foot slipped between Redford Catholic Central's football team the most.

Winters, a pro pitching prospect, gained 185 yards on 21 carries and scored on an 83-yard fourth-quarter touchdown run as Detroit St. Martin De Porres beat CC, 16-15, for the Catholic League championship at the Pontiac Silverdome.

With CC ahead, 15-8, Winters took a hand-off from quarterback Maurice King, headed right, then reversed his field and outran CC's secondary for a score with 5:22 remaining. Winters' two-point conversion gave the Eagles the winning margin and revenge after losing to CC in last year's Catholic League championship.

"It was a 5-38 power run and I was trying to get outside," said Winters, who actually had to run about 100 yards on his winning TD. "I got past the first guy, but then I cut back and all there was was green (turf) to the inside. It's a big thrill!"

The loss ended CC's 16-game winning streak and left the Shamrocks at 8-1 overall. CC, No. 1 in the final Class AA Region III computer ratings, will meet Dearborn Fordon (7-1 overall) in a first-round playoff game at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Pontiac's Wasner Stadium.

CC beat DePorres, 21-6, earlier this year on grass but coach Tom Marfisi says the thought that the Eagles' speed would benefit on the Silverdome artificial turf.

"We didn't tackle very well, they ran well and that run (by Winters) could have happened anywhere, on grass or turf," Mach said. "This is a hard defeat, but we played for the championship and played nine hard games so it's not the end of the world. We just have to re-focus and try to accomplish our goals in the playoffs."

CC trailed 8-0 at halftime but scored on its first two possessions of the second half to lead for the first time. Senior wide receiver Frank Yoakam sparked the rally, getting the Shamrocks on the scoreboard with a 53-yard TD pass from junior quarterback Chris Barba with 9:57 remaining in the third quarter.

Brett Walter's two-point conversion tied the score, 8-8. CC recovered a De Porres fumble at the Eagle 31 with 8:31 remaining and the Shamrocks scored eight plays later on fullback Dan Gusoff's three-yard run. Kerry Zavgagin's extra point made it 15-8. Zavgagin later lined up for a 31-yard field goal, but he never got a chance to kick it after a high snap from center.

De Porres coach Ron Thompson gave CC much more respect than the Shamrocks received from a group of Farmington Hills Harrison football players afterward in the corner of the end zone. Several Harrison players, wearing their varsity jackets or jerseys, were seen taunting the coach Chris Barba as they exited through the Silverdome tunnel.

"When you give all you have and win by only one point, you know you've beaten a hell of a team," Thompson said. "We can't stop 84 (Yoakam). He's the only ballplayer we've faced in the last four years that we can't stop."
