For the lucky man on your holiday gift list. From left, Jason binoculars fit in a shirt pocket and never need focusing. Ideal for theater or sporting events ($99.95). Take a peek through this contemporary kaleidoscope signed by the artist, Janice Chesnik. The sleek, nickel plated body, black base and stand create a unique accessory for the workplace or home office ($150). Give the classic Seiko clock made of sculpted crystal, a timeless gift for home or office ($74). The Sherwood organizer from Filofax is made of top-quality leather ($100). Includes a 1992 calendar, a note pad, an expense pad and an address book, plus space for credit cards, pens and miscellaneous. Choose Colibri's handsome fountain pen, rollerball or ballpoint pen in a variety of finishes including classic gold tone ($25-$60). Matching letter openers complete the set ($15-$30). At The Male Room, The Boardwalk, West Bloomfield.

Shake up gloomy winter days with the pizzazz of plaid from head to toe. From top left, fashion umbrella ($40); leather-plaid fabric backpack ($210); baseball cap, special order only. ($35); plaid lamb-wool muffer ($55); Anne Klein's red and black ballet flats ($104); plaid fabric Kelly bag ($115); plaid gloves ($25) and Judith Leiber's plaid minaudiere ($2,135). At Saks Fifth Avenue, Somerset Collection, Troy.

The newest thing for Barbie and other fashion dolls is their own doll house, with rooms scaled to their dimensions. Propping her Barbie on the balcony of "Play Scale" Victorian dollhouse is Taylor Goad, 8, granddaughter of Criss Goad, owner of Miniature Makers Workshop, Royal Oak. The workshop carries kits for assembling the new doll houses, such as this one by Real Good Toys of Barre, Vt., priced at $370.
