the standing-room-only songlest that brought 165 Perry Como/Andy Wil-liams wanna-bees to the Oakland Family Service kareoke-like charity fundarises.

Family Service kareoke-like charity fund-raiser.

"More than $7,000 was raised for $75, with a ticket price of only $25, reported Pamela Livingston (Seaghil) Hardy. "This year we also had a small sitent auction that brought in additional revenues."

"Food went flying and forks dropped when Billi Fry, president of OFS, belted out in an operatic voice toy to the World," said Hardy with a laugh, "and literally bordes of people were rushing the microphone to sing."

Sew Gordon, on the Executive

ple were rushing the microphone to sing."
Gsy Gordon, on the Executive Board of the Women's Committee of Oakland Family Services, was master of ceremonies for the evening.
Luminating Hardy's deasert feast were Mark and Beeky Jones, Mark is Birmingham's First Night '92 co-thair, which is the family happening on New Year's Eve in Birmingham More to come in the next few weeks on First Night. Mark and Beeky also have chaired the Guy Fawke Ball 'sans dinner' scene for the last 10 years. Great stories were told about their annual invitation-only pre-party at the Bloomfield Country Cub's men's locker room.

men's locker room.

STARS & ICE: This year the Cranbrook Institute of Science annual mid-winter gala is more important and ever. The Bloomfield Hills museum of natural history and science along with the chalver state budget could be considered to the second of the country of

Gala to benefit Cranbrook's science institute

To enlighten Social Eyes of up-coming events call 442-2339, fax 442-7727 or write P.O. Box 250242, Franklin 48025.

FIFTH AVENUE FEST Cheryl Hall Lindsay of Saks Fifth Avenue and Karen Haller, Auxiliary Presi-dent of Children's Hospital of Michi-gan co-chaired the second annual Fifth Avenue Fest held Tuesday at Fitth Avenue Fest held Tuesday at the Troy emporium.

The store was closed for the evening to the public as patrons of the fund-raiser were allowed to shop, sample and feast on consuming passions presented by Matt Prentice of Schastlan's, Moreis and Deli Unique.

samples and went on a scavenger hunt throughout the store to place their raffle thetels in various silver drawing boxes. Door prize drawings included a forgrance gift basket, Burberry blazer. Ferragam of the property blazer, Ferragam of the press, and Fenn, Wright and Manson sweaters.

Committee members making this Saks solree a success were Joan Alieu, Dale Austin, Saale Baker (auxiliary president elect), Rhear Brody, Losiae Dudy, Marguerite Durham, Pamels Rock Gardner, Mary Lou Janes, Mary Jane Jewell, Annette Kolon, Am Locas, Cindy Mier, Clady Olley, Sonia Pastore, Lorraine Schultz, Jodie Sherman, Mary Lou Simpson, Valerie Straith, Christina

Strumbos, and Carol Zuzcnak.

Valerie Stralth's cars picked up when she heard about the "nude plot "taken for the Observer & Eccentric. Seems Gretchen Ilitch created as it in the sicre when sharing her experience of shooting a "new photo" for her column. Watch for "new photoa" of all your favorite O&E writers coming soon.

HARDY PARTY: Pamela Liviaga-ton Hardy and busband Roland Har-dy were not quite recovered from the Dec. 2 Oakland Family Service Midlown Cafe Sing-A-Long when they greeted guests in their warm and charming home at their annual Sunday afternoon holiday dessert-fest.

Local talent to present concerts

OCC chorus presents 'Gloria'

The exhilarating sounds of Gloria by Antonio Vivaldi will be performed in concert by the Oakanot Community College Community Chorus at 8 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 17. Conducted by professional arranger/composer G. Kevin Dewey, the performance will be staged in the Smith Theatre on the Orchard Ridge Campus of OCC.

Also included in the program are selections by Johannes Brahms.

Also included in the program are selections by Johannes Brahms, Leroy Anderson, Samuel Barber and Alfred Burt.

The Renassance Volces, an a cappella encemble originated and directed by Dewey, will again be in the spullight with a delightful assortment of musical treats.

A Dearborn native, Dewey has a achelor of music degree in jazz udles and a master of music degree in choral conducting from Wayne State University.

While at Wayne State, Dewey was assistant director under Dr. Harry Langsford of the world-renowned WSU Men's Glee Club and the WSU Chamber Singers.
In addition to the OCC Community Chorus and the Renalsance Voices, Dewey conducts the Oratorio Society of Dearborn, the Dearborn Summer Festival Chorus and serves as director of music- at Southfield Presbyte-frain Church.
Accompanying the 100-voice chorus will be the Harrison High School String Orchestra under the direction of Mark Phillips.
The Orchard Ridge campus is on Orchard Lake Road sowth of 1-969 in Farmington Hills. For more information, call 471-7700.

'A Little Advent Music' on tap

Those gathered at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Dec. 15, at Trinity Episcopal Church, 26880 La Muera Drive in Farmington Hills, will be treated to the music of composer Hugo Distler in the Advent Cantata, "A Little Advent Music."

vent Music."

Performed by the Trinity Church
Photor and a chamber ensemble of violin, flute, obee, cello and harpsitoord, the music embellishes the Advent story fo the coming of the Messiah told through narrations excerpted from the gospels of John and Luke and read by Fiona Hamilton-Little.

The cantata will be conducted by Ed Walsh, organist and choir direc-tor at Trinity. Walso also will pres-ent organ selections by Johann Pa-chelbel and Johann Sebastian Bach.

Distier conducted the first performance of "A Litle Advent Music" on Nov. 29, 1931 at the St. Jakobikirche in Luebeck, Germany, He'd been organist of this church for less than a year, having come to the position from his study at the conservatory in Lepjag.
"Advent Music" was again performed in November, 1935 at Distier's penultimate Musical Vesper in Luebeck. This north German city figured prominently in resistance to the Nati pressures against the church. The life of a church musiclan became too precarious for a creative artist, and Distier moved his family to Stuttgart in 1937, where he turned his attentions large-

Wreath takes the silver

THE NUTCRACKER

for your family's entertainment

L1-00 a m

Birmingham Theatre Box Office (313) 644-3533

DON'T MISS THIS DELIGITIFUL EVENT!

Tickets available at Florence Smith put a smile on the faces of her North Farmington Garden Club colleagues when the past club president's wreath was awarded a silver ribbon at Cobo Hall's 7th Annual Festival of Trees.

The 30-inch grapevine wreath was decorated with German statice and green eucalyptus. Accents included his timeless holiday classic co-

Saturday matinee Thursday, Sunday matinee

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday eve....

pomegranates, fruit and pine cones clustered in the shape of a flower. Gold metallic tibular cording was woven into the design with large loops softly hanging from the top of the wreath.

Smilht's wreath sold for $400. Proceeds from the festival benefit Children's Hospital of Michigan.

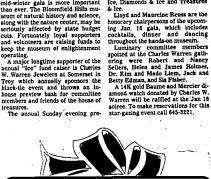

nes to the Birmingham Theatro

Fri eve : Sat & Sun mat $15.00 Groups of 20 or more - $15.00

Group Sales (313) 644-3576

ly to secular music.

There is no charge for Sunday's

Wrap it up!

FREE EARRINGS! DIAMOND DANGLE JACKETS 1/2 Ct. T.W.

Pamela Livingston Hardy and view/holiday party was a feast of culinary excitement that included chilled poached salmon, succulent shrimp, crep suzettes prepared tabletide, cafe de Maria and a coloridarya of petif fours.

Stars & Ice chaltpersons Jack and Betty Edman of Orchard Lake have selected this year's them to coordinate with the museum's DESTINA. TION: SPACE exhibit. Themes from the past include Lazara & fee, Fire & Ice, Diamonds & Ice and Treasures & Ice.

SALE '499 Reg. '640

PLUS... Get All 3 Pair of GEMSTONE EARRINGS FREE - A '120 Value!

Meyer Jewelers

decorate hospital

Hillel kids

More than 400 pieces of art created by the students of Hillel Day School in Farmington Hills are on display in the corridors and lobbies of Sinal Hospital, 6767 W. Outer display in the corridors and lobbies of Sinal Hospital, 876? W. Outer Drive in Detroit. The centuries-old tradition of Chanaka was celebrated with the Hillel students at the sixth annual Sinal/Hillel Art Show and Latke Party Dee. St. Latkes are potato parcakes served with a variety of accompaniments. After lunch the Hillel Day School Choir performed. "The meal was a way of thanking the Hillel children, whose 400 works if art have brightened our politics and cheered our patients, guests and employees during the month," said Marta Rosenthal, Sinai Hospital Chanaka commemortes the miracle of the temple candelabra, or menorah, when a one-day supply of oil for the temple sperpetual flame burned for eight days. The significance of oil is carried over in the consumption of fried foods such as takes and doughnuts during the holiday.

The public is welcome to view the day.

The public is welcome to view the Hillel student art exhibit though Jan. Sinai, a 615-bed tertiary care fa-cility, is Michigan's only Jewish hospital.

It has served the community since 1953, and in the first quarter of fiscal year 1992 posted a profit of 66,000. Sinai's physician referral telephone number is 1-800-248-3627.

Your new neighbors just moved

in...

Did you meet them yet? Almost 1 of every 5 Armei-cans moves oach year, and wherever Americans move of Cetting To Know You well of the yet of th

WELCOMING NEWCOMERS NATIONWIDE

(800) 645-6376

CHILDREN'S ROCKERS The Gift They Theep Traces

Area's Most Complete

DIANE M

40-75% OFF

...handknit sweaters, cashmere...

Monday-Friday 10 to 8 + Saturday until 5:30 + Sunday 12 to 5

SALE

Including: Byblos, Margaretta, Et Vous, Philippe Adec, Equipment...

100 N. Woodward • Birmingham • 646-5660 Northeast corner of Maple & Woodward

アンドンドンドンドンドンドンドンドンドンドンドンドンドンド LATE HOLIDAY SHOPPERS TAKE NOTE

The FRANK BOOS GALLERY December auction includes property from the CM GALLERY. Grosse Pointe Farms, a Midwest museum and a huge selection of interesting items from many estates and collectors.

teresting items from many estates and collectors.

Find that perfect holiday gift from an array of ceramics, including a selection from Cranbrook artists, GERT-RUDE and OTTO NATZLER and MAIJA GROTELL: a stunning early 18th century selvet and gold embroidered horse trapping (probably Louis XIV); paintings by such artists as MYRON BARLOW, CHARLES CULVER, GAB-RIEL DAUCHOT, WILLIAM GROPPER, JOSEF FLOCH, ROBERT PETTIBONE (with works after LICH-TENNSTEIN, MONET, POONS, STELLA and WARHOL; broares (including works by R.E. KUIIN, M. POWERS AND SCHIMUT-FELLING); furniture from the Modernism Movement; painted furniture; fireplace mantles; mirrors; Orientalia; quilts; cameras; trains; porcelains; decorative arts; prints (including CURRIER and IVES); frakturs; clocks, chandeliers, lamps and sconces; silver; jewelry; glassware; garden seulpture and furniture for jewelry; glassware; garden sculpture and furniture for

PREVIEW

AUCTION

Frank H. Boos Gallery

420 Enterprise Court, Bloomfield Hills (313) 332-1500 Fax 332-6370 Illustrated catalogue $18, $20 postpaid, $25 foreign

