THE NEW YEAR SHOULD SIGNAL THE START OF A NEW LIFE

In less than a week, we will replace the calendar on the wall with a new one; a transition often heralded by a festive get-together with friends, relatives or neighbors, waiting for the hands of the clock to scissor off the old year at midnight. However, the serious side of the new year should also be remembered, and when the bells and the strains of Auld Lang Syne have died out and the horns and paper hats put away until next year, it's time to make that list of what you will resolve to do (or stop doing) this year. Good intentions being what they are, you may not live up to it, but it's a start. The one resolution you should keep is to attend your House of Worship regularly. It may very well help you to adopt all those other items on your list.

Perhaps the best reason for having calendars is that the cycle itself offers hope.

"Let us go on unto perfection...and faith toward God." Hebrews 6:1
