This week's question:
How do you feel about the proposed tax increase on cigarettes?

We asked this question at Farmington Hills City Hall

"I'm a smoker so I don't like the idea of new taxes on cigarettes. But maybe it will help me quit. I don't have a problem with tax revenues coming from cigarettes."
—Mayor Jon Grant
Farmington Hills

"It seems every time we need more money we go to the same sources. I'm not a smoker so it won't affect me. Tax policies should be more even-handed."
—Councilman Aldo Vagnozzi
Farmington Hills

"I'm not really happy with it. It probably will cause me to cut down on my smoking."
—Firefighter Marty Knopf
Farmington Hills

"I think it should go up maybe 50 cents. I'm totally against smokers."
—Firefighter Denny Hughes
Farmington Hills

"Being a non-smoker, I think it's great."
—Inspector Tom Godwin
Farmington Hills police

"With the increase, the money is going to be used to make a cleaner environment for non-smokers. People polluting the air should help clean the air."
—Josephine Spencer
