TIMES OF TROUBLE CAN BRING OUT THE BEST IN ALL OF US
 We have just completed a year that those of us who survived it will not soon forget. In addition to the man-made calamities of war and economic recession, we saw an incredible parade of natural disasters throughout the world. There were floods, along with tornadoes and other killer storms; as well as earthquakes and volcanic eruptions. For the answers to why these things happen, go to your House of Worship. There you will learn that misfortune can bring out the best in us, causing us to forget our own problems and pursuits while we help our neighbors in trouble. This is true of nature as well as individuals. God has been reminding us the power of his universe, and helping man to develop an unselfish capacity for dealing with it.
 "He who helps in the saving of others Saves himself as well."
 -Lutheran Von
 "They helped every one his neighbor and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage."
 -Isiah 41:10
