Decorating preview planned

Patricia Duffield will celebrate the opening of her new business, Decorating Den, with a grand opening workshop at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 30, at the Townsend Hotel in Birmingham.

Home owners are invited to attend. Reserve a seat by calling 649-2657.

A preview of trends in interior home fashions and coordination of window treatments, wallcoverings, carpeting and upholstery fabrics for a variety of lifestyles will be presented during the workshop.

"There will be light refreshments and door prizes so bring a friend but not your checkbook," Duffield said. "We will not be selling anything, just sharing decorating ideas."

DECORATING DEN is an in-home decorating service that specializes in window treatments, floor covering, wallcoverings, furniture and accessories.

Professional, trained decorators visit clients' homes with an equipped "colorvan" that carries more than 5,000 samples.

Have luncheon with Picasso

The Paint Creek Center for the Arts will sponsor a luncheon and lecture on Picasso by Michael Farrell on Friday, Feb. 7, at Meadow Brook Hall, Oakland University.

In his slide presentation, "Picasso and His Loves," Farrell will consider Picasso's works in the context of the artist's personal life, demonstrating how Picasso's paintings can be viewed as pages of the artist's diary.

Advance reservations for the luncheon/lecture must be made by Thursday, Jan. 30. Reserve early to ensure space. For more information, call the PCCA at 651-4110.

Farrell, who is professor of art history at the University of Windsor and director of Art House in Detroit, is a popular lecturer on a wide range of art subjects for general audiences.

He is well known in the metropolitan area for his informative and entertaining art appreciation talks.
