DON'T LET THE SHADOW OF SUPERSTITION CLOUD YOUR DAY

By now each one of us has picked A trusted method to predict The kind of weather we will see;
By watching experts on TV, Or learning what we have to store
By turning to our native lore: A famous groundhog known as Phil
Will leave his burrow on the hill, And if his shadow will be cast,
Then winter's cold is bound to last. It's just for fun, yet we recall
That superstition grips us all. Don't let it overshadow you,
But keep faith's messages in view: For rain or shine, your true reward
Will come from trusting in the Lord.

—Christa Nowak

We keep unaltered...as many of our old prejudices and beliefs as we can.
--William James

"There shall arise false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders."
