Derek Speerschneuder (dackstroke). Besides winning the fly, Kevin Hainer was second to PErrico in the IM. Dan. Hainer of Groves placed second to Matuzak in the 200 free and the Groves 200 and 400 free re-lay squads both placed second to tri-umphant Andover.

"You can't take anything away from Andover — they had the best from the past few years and they proved it," said Groves cach Dar-ren Abbase, whose team is 6-0 over-all and 5-0 in the Metro Suburban Activities Association. "But we had a good consistency of second places to them. We didn't servet to win, but we wanted to be in the hunt.

"I'm extremely happy with the way we swam," he said. "This has been our best opportunity to swim fast this whole year. We gear our-selves to swim fast here and the kids are just tyring to get their state cu-off times here or improve their state cut-off times here."

Andover wins county swimming title Groves in the butterfly (54.87), plus Novi tankers Adam Cox (diving) and Derek Speerschneider (backstroke).

The Barons also won all three re-lays.

Jud leads gymnasts at Canton

Freshman Annie Jud was one of the top all-around gymnasts Saturday in the Plymouth Canton Invitational and helped North Farmington finish seventh in the 12-team meet

Farmington finish seventh in the Jud achieved an overall score of 36.30 to finish fourth in Divi-sion I. Only Freeland's Sara Kei-ly, Canton's Kim Renoolds and Plymouth Salem's Coortney Gonyea did better than her. North coach Jeff Dryer said Jud was slowed early in the sea-son by an injured finger and back aliment but is 'isatriling to come around at the right time. I'm no-ticing as the competition gets lougher she's starting to throw more and more of her old tricks. She's a lough girl, a lough sym-mat.

Jud tied with Rennolds for first place on vault (9.35), tied for third on bars (9.05), tied for 11th on bal-ance beam (8.6) and placed fifth on floor exercise (9.3).
