BIBLE STORIES SHOW THAT HUMAN NATURE WILL NEVER CHANGE

If you have ever spent much time reading the Bible, you know that it contains many fascinating stories that illustrate both the strength and the weakness of human nature. Those parables and other incidents have provided the basis for many a sermon, which you have undoubtedly heard at your House of Worship if you have been attending regularly, and they can often furnish the answer to some problem or situation you may be facing today just by the application of a few timeless principles. However, whether you're concerned with financial matters, human relationships or whatever, the message here is that throughout our history and despite our ever-changing lifestyles, human nature has remained the same since those ancient days which were recorded in the Bible, and that your House of Worship is the best place to learn this.

Human nature will not change. We shall have...weak and strong, evil and wise, bad and good.
—Abraham Lincoln
