

Monthly cable show puts spotlight on politics

Always on top of the political issues are the committee members of the Farmington Hills Committee to Increase Voter Participation. Each month they produce a television show to acquaint and educate residents on current issues and elections. The program is "My Vote Counts." February's show hosts Raymond Tanter, Professor of Political Science at the University of Michigan. He discusses the 1992 elections. Resident John Akouri hosts. The show will feature "How to Choose a Candidate" by Linda DePorter of the League of Women Voters. Julianne Hovanestian will host.

The committee encourages your opinions and reactions. Should you be so inclined call Dave Tietmeyer at 473-9581.
