

Program examines property tax proposals

Local television producer Louis Rosenthal brings us a television show of current interest. "Speakers Row" may be seen on Channel 12. This production is about "Property Tax Relief."

An hour long program elaborates about three different property tax proposals. Louis discusses the explanation of what each proposal is and its benefits and drawbacks.

The first is the Republican proposal. Governor Engler's is represented by Fred Swalzek. The intent is to take 30 percent off assessed value of one's home.

The second is the Olmstead-Kerny Plan represented by David Olmstead. This intent would have the state increase levels of spending available to each school district.

The third proposal is the Democratic proposal represented by David Crim. The intent of this plan would be to allow up to $30,000 off the assessed value of your home.

Louis is excited that he has the opportunity to share vital information with you via Community Television. Watch "Speakers Row" on Channel 12.
