Preserving on canvas

Heiner Hertling of West Bloomfield stands by some of his work shown at the ninth annual Michigan Wildlife Art Festival, March 20-22 in Southfield. The event, a benefit for wildlife restoration, included exhibits by artists from around the country as well as seminars. Hertling, whose work has won many awards, doesn't call himself a wildlife artist but is glad to help with such projects. "I'm a painter and an artist and a sculptor," he said. "I like to do creative things with my hands. Wildlife happens to be one of my (subjects)." Hertling was the featured artist at the 1988 Michigan Wildlife Art Festival.

Marketing seminar slated

The International Furnishings and Design Association Michigan Chapter will sponsor a seminar, "How to Design Effective Marketing Strategies," noon to 3:30 p.m. Thursday, April 2, at the Michigan Design Center, 1700 Stutz Drive in Troy. Christina Lovio-George, president of Lovio-George Inc., will be the speaker. Cost, including lunch, is $15, $17 at door (students $12). Call Marilyn Acker at 443-2588.

Art trip planned

Art Ventures an art appreciation group sponsored by the Paint Creek Center for the Arts, plans a trip to the Art Gallery of Windsor on Friday, April 10.

The group will enjoy a guided tour of the museum's permanent collection and the traveling exhibition "Free Worlds: Metaphor and Realities in Contemporary Hungarian Art." Luncheon will follow in the gallery restaurant overlooking the Detroit skyline.

This Art Ventures tour is open to anyone who enjoys art-related excursions. Car pools from Rochester will be available.

Reservation deadline is Friday, April 3. Register in person at the PCCA, 407 Pine in Rochester, or by phone at 651-4110. PCCA office hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday.
