Osteopathic Unit Plans Convention

Mrs. Milton Kosley and Mrs. Frank McDewitt of Farmington will represent the Wayne County Osteopathic Auxiliary at the 27th annual state convention to be held in Grand Rapids May 23 to 26.

Plans for the convention were made at a meeting of the auxiliary in the home of Mrs. William Athens, Trenton.

Other members attending the convention will be Mrs. Patric Murray and Mrs. Norman Ter of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. David Lucid and Mrs. John Ozog of Livonia and Mrs. James Parshall of Plymouth.

Members also made plans for the annual President's Ball to be held May 26. Dr. Dorothy Carnegie of Lansing will be installed as president of the Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons.

Purpose of the auxiliary is to promote public relations in the profession and to assist osteopathic colleges, student loan and research programs.

MRS. FREDERICK JAMES WURTSMITH (Gail Elizabeth Keeber)

Bridal Pair Write Marriage Vows

A candlelight service with the vows written by the bride and bridegroom solemnized the union of Gail Elizabeth Keeber and Frederick James Wurtsmith April 17.

The ceremony took place in Orchard United Methodist Church of Farmington and the minister, the Rev. Eric S. Hammar, offered a Gaelic blessing to the union.

Dr. and Mrs. Willard H. Keeber of Farmington are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wurtsmith of Royal Oak.

A reception in the church's fellowship hall followed the rites.

The bride wore an organza empire gown with lace appliques on the fitted sleeves, bodice and Victorian collar. Her short veil fell from a matching lace cap, and her flowers were yellow roses, white daisies and baby's breath in a colonial arrangement.

Her three attendants' gowns had yellow shantung skirts and full-sleeved bodices of white tucked organza with lace daisies. They wore yellow satin ribbons in their hair and carried nosegays of white daisies.

Susan Hartzell of Mid-diesee, N.J., was maid of honor. The other attendants were Bethanie Keeber, junior bridesmaid, and Anne Margaret Keeber, flower girl, both sisters of the bride.

THE BRIDEGROOM and his attendants, as well as both fathers, wore brown Edwardian Tuxedos with flare pants and gold shirts.

Best man was James Podzikowski of Detroit. The ushers were Christopher Wurtsmith, brother of the bridegroom, Harold Lee, Michael Campbell and Timothy Ehlen, all of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Keeber wore a blue crepe gown and Mrs. Wurtsmith was in pink chiffon.

Present for the ceremony were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caubert of Farmington, and the grandparents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mapes of Detroit.

The couple honeymooned in Quebec and will live in Madison Heights.

Spina Bifida Unit To Be Organized

The Northwest Chapter of the Spina Bifida Association of Michigan will hold its first meeting Tuesday, May 25, at 8:30 p.m., in the North Congregational Church, 10½ Mile Rd. and Lahser, South-field.

All interested may attend. The Spina Bifida Association of Michigan is a new organization formed about a year ago to reach all children and adults with this crippling birth defect.

Kimberly Krolczyk, Wayne County Poster Child, whose parents are members of the association, is only one such child being helped.

The group was formed by Mrs. Suzanne Feetham, a registered nurse, who was involved in a similar group in the west. Mrs. Feetham has been supported by physicians and therapists in forming a group here. It is sponsored by the March of Dimes.

Meetings are held once a month and there are social activities such as a summer picnic and Christmas party where the parents and children get together. Those interested may contact Mrs. Walter L. Korona, 12157 Cavell, Livonia, or their local March of Dimes office.

Bonsai Society Meets May 25

The next meeting of the Shibusai Bonsai Society of Metropolitan Detroit will be held in Livonia. It will be in the Carl Sandburg Library, 30100 W. Seven Mile, Tuesday, May 25, at 8 p.m.

Bonsai trees will be displayed on a special table and there will be a question and answer period.

A new constitution and bylaws will be presented for approval by members of the garden club.

Anyone who is interested in joining the society should contact the organizer, Raymond B. Boardman, 18446 Edinborough Rd., Detroit, 48219.

Mrs. Renich To Speak To Club

An exponent of "inner liberation" for women, Mrs. Jill Renich, will be guest speaker at the Dearborn-Plymouth Christian Women's Club luncheon Thursday, May 27. It will be held in the Mayflower Meeting House, Main Street, Plymouth, at 12 noon.

For reservations, call Mrs. A.E. VanOrnum, 1384 Maple, Plymouth. Mrs. Renich is founder of Winning Women, Inc., and is the wife of the Rev. Fred C. Renich. She is an author, lecturer, teacher and mother and is presently heard on 11 radio stations. Her latest book "To Have and to Hold" will be out in January 1972. "Liberation," says Mrs. Renich, "comes from within. Real freedom is a spirit, not a situation."

Ford Wives Meet May 25

The Ford Wives Club will install new officers at its last meeting of the season May 25, at 7:45 p.m., in the Ford World Headquarters Building, Dearborn.

Jerry Hodak, Channel 2 weather editor, will be the guest speaker. Members may bring guests.

DICK BENSEK
All of us are well acquainted with Thomas Jefferson, founding father and statesman, but few know him in another role — that of connoisseur of fine eating and gourmet. Appointed as our country's first ambassador to France, he frequented the best of the French restaurants and brought back to our country many exotic dishes to whet the palates of his guests at Monticello... It was at a state dinner at the White House that America had her first taste of Baked Alaska, a dessert that was today crowns the finest dinners and wedding banquets. He was responsible, too, for introducing America to its first taste of spaghetti; and for this, be it with tomato, marinara, clam or meat sauce, we "thank you," Thomas Jefferson!
Let us at DANISH INN, 32305 Grand River Ave., 476-5320 introduce you to fine eating. In addition to our regular menu we feature a number of Danish dishes including Dansk Hakke Bøf, Biff Lindstrom, Dansk Lobster Tails and Danish Potato Pancakes... To enhance your dining pleasure we feature Pat Flowers nightly Tues. thru Sat. 8:30 p.m. to closing.
HELPFUL HINT: When preparing spaghetti sauce, add ½ teaspoon orange extract just after dissolving the sugar for an extra-delicious touch.
