And there's one thing that hasn't changed much at all. People still buy and sell household goods and automobiles in our classified columns. We've been around for more than a century and we know that classifieds work as well today as they did back then. Probably better.

Memory lane is now a super highway and life has changed a lot, but a classified ad in your hometown newspaper will still do a bang-up job for you! Try one today.

> Observer & Eccentric NEWSPAPERS

Small business owner: "Advertising seems to cost so much these days. Maybe I should cut back on my budget."

Our Classified ad taker: "Advertising should be considered more than just an expense, it should be looked at as an. investment. A consistent ad schedule willbuild recognition and reputation for your company. Putting your ad dollars in classified is like putting money in the bank."

Use Observer & Eccentric classifieds and reach more than one quarter million readers. That's an investment you can take to the bank.
