

Pair Honeymoons In Vegas, Hawaii

A honeymoon in Las Vegas and Hawaii followed the wedding of Judi Ann Hall and James Albert Listerman in the First United Methodist Church of Birmingham May 1. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hall of

MRS. JAMES ALBERT LISTERMAN
(Judi Ann Hall)

Echo Valley East and Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Listerman of Ardwick Road, both of Farmington.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar, where Dr. Ernest Thomas heard the couple's vows.

A camelot headpiece with light blue bows held the bride's veil, and her flowers were white gardenias and baby's breath and blue tipped roses.

Her attendants wore full-skirted gowns of flock-dotted voile with red satin sashes and chokers and white panama straw hats. They carried single long-stemmed white mums with red satin streamers.

Mrs. Michael Mahoney of Troy was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. David Clapper of Pontiac, Mrs. William Hall of Northville, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Louis Payne of Pontiac and Debbie Pedersen of Detroit, cousins of the bride; Jan Michelson of Chicago and Kathy McCort of Washington.

Karen Kelsy, the flower girl, wore navy blue dotted swiss with a red satin sash and carried a nosegay of red roses.

WHITE ORGANZA fashioned the bridal gown. Venice lace trimmed the tucked bodice and full sleeves, a blue satin ribbon outlined the empire waistline and blue forget-me-nots were scattered on the skirt and bodice.

MRS. LeBLANC
(Colleen Cronin)

LeBlanc-Cronin Rites Held

Wearing a white crepe gown with beaded trim at the neckline and sleeves, Colleen Cronin became the bride of Donald LeBlanc April 30 in Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, Plymouth. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Cronin and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeBlanc, both of Plymouth.

WITH HER GOWN, the bride wore an elbow-length veil and carried a nosegay of white carnations, yellow roses and baby's breath. Her father gave her in marriage. Judy Chinowski, the bride's only attendant, wore an apricot gown. The bride's mother was in a yellow crepe empire gown with sheer sleeves and Mrs. LeBlanc wore an aqua suit.

Joseph LeBlanc Jr. was best man. The ushers were Kevin Cronin and Jim LeBlanc.

The couple greeted 140 guests in a reception in the Knights of Columbus hall in Plymouth before leaving on a 5 m o n e y M o u n t a i n s honeymoon. They will live in Plymouth.

The bridegroom attends Scherolcraft Community College and the bride, a 1970 graduate of Plymouth High School, formerly studied there.

Denise Gale Wed To E.A. Ksenych

Denise Ann Gale became the bride of Edward Allan Ksenych in a candlelight ceremony in the First United Methodist Church of Farmington.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Gale of Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ksenych of Oro, Canada, are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Hugh White heard the couple's vows.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line gown with a lace panel embroidered with pearls and sequins in front. Her bouffant veil was secured by a crown, and her bouquet was a cascade of daisies, glads and mums with a center rose that she presented to the bridegroom as part of the ceremony.

Liz Neville was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Sandy Ksenych and Sylvia Stewart. Their dresses were peach with white lace trim.

Miss Stewart, also soloist for the ceremony, sang from the rear of the church after the bride's mother was seated.

JIM CHAPMAN was best man and Mike Gale and Gary Yawlak were ushers, the bride's nephew, Billy Kraus, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Gale designed her gown of lilac lace over shantung and Mrs. Ksenych was in lime peau de soi.

The bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kraus, hosted the reception for 125 guests in the church fellowship hall.

After a week of travel in the East, the newlyweds were honored with a second reception in the Constellation Hotel in Toronto.

Both are students at York University in Toronto, where the bridegroom has a teaching fellowship for the coming year. The new Mrs. Ksenych graduated from Farmington High School in 1968 and also attended Western Michigan University.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Savage of Redford Township announce the engagement of their daughter, Christina Lynn, to Kit Kyle Baker, son of Mrs. Kenneth Baker of Ionia, and the late Mr. Baker. The bride-elect is a 1969 graduate of Saginaw Arthur Hill High School and a sophomore at Ferris State College. Her fiancé graduated from high school in Colon, and is serving with the U.S. Air Force. A June wedding is planned.

They're Engaged

The Rev. and Mrs. Stephen M. Hadden of Jamestown, N.D., announce the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Elaine, to John Gary Tyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Tyler of Livonia, formerly of Redford Township. Both are juniors majoring in biology at Evangel College in Springfield, Mo. The prospective bridegroom graduated from Bentley High School in 1967 and attended Schoolcraft Community College for two years before enrolling at Evangel. They plan an Aug. 28 wedding in Jamestown.
