International Day: Third grader Alex Shaw fixes his Middle Eastern head dress while Angela Arcori watches recently at an International Day at St. Fabian School in Farmington Hills. The fun included special "passports" and tickets good for ethnic food. The event was sponsored by the student council.

North Farmington plans a senior all-night party

The 16th annual North Farmington High School senior all-night party will be held Sunday, June 7, from 10 p.m. to 4:30 a.m. the following morning.

Sponsored by the senior parents, this party is a tradition at North Farmington as an alternative to individual graduation parties. Typically, more than 90 percent of the members of the graduating class attend the party. This year's class has more than 290 students. The theme of this year's party is "The Class of '92 Friendship Tour." Parents have been planning all year to make this party a success.

The party will end at 4:30 a.m. with a continental breakfast and a closing ceremony hosted by assistant principal Rick Jones. Chairing this year's event are Anna and Hub Laisey and Louis, and Steve Specter.
