opening night benefit. Other team players included Lathrop, Village residents Eleanor and Jack De-royer.

Also affiliated with this important benefit are the Mus Fishers, the Walter B. Fords, the William Clay Fords, the Joseph Hudsons, the Heinz Prechters, the Alfred Imbrius, the Paul Bornmans, the Joseph Antonius and the Flaxtons.

Teeing off

The 1992 Juvenile Diabetes Foundation Golf Classic will be Wednesday at the Links at Pinewood Golf Club in Walled Lake.

The five-man team, starting off with a shotgun start at 5:30 a.m., will conclude by 1:30 p.m.

Event co-chairs W. Scott Jones, Audrey Kowalski, and Barbara Wallace are encouraging you to take a swing at a better day by golfing by team.

Call 269-611-1000 or 269-611-1001 for reservations. West Bloomfield resident

Ernest Fuller is honorary chairman.

Discovery Ball

If you did not receive your invitation to the Discovery Ball to benefit the Leukemia Society, call 774-0509.

The invitation (designed by Farmington Hills artist David McCall Johnson) is "on the upbeat," which is the theme for the June 5 gala. The "formal" attire fund-raiser will be held in the Presidential Ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton, Dearborn, with an evening of music and dancing. Tickets are $300.

Grand Prix Ball

Roger and Kathy Penske are this year's chairman and chairwoman for the annual Grand Prix Ball on Thursday, June 4, at the Westin Hotel in Detroit.

Even in a recession the $300-per-person ticket does not seem to affect attendance to this racy event, which benefits Detroit's Music Hall.

For reservations call the Music Hall at 963-7622.

International Dinner Dance

West Bloomfield Cheryl Hall Lindsey, Agnes Melldin and Sandy Mueller are serving on the committee for the International Visitors Council of Metropolitan Detroit's 10th annual "International Dinner Dance" on Friday, June 5.

Celebrating the 20th anniversary of the International Visitors Council of metro Detroit, the dinner dance will honor its three founders: Frank Angelo, Robert Hefty and James Maunders.

The dinner and silent auction, to be held at the Townsend Hotel in Birmingham, includes dinner, and dancing to the music of White Lace.

For reservations call IVC Director Gretchen Hitch at 259-2680.

Preview night: Southfield entrepreneur Richard Kughn (left) and wife Linda, who chaired the Village Antique preview night, chat with Crain's captain Keith Crain.

Waiting in line: Jessica Newton and Roger Maule of Southfield stand outside the Danette Pyle Gallery in West Bloomfield, waiting to meet and greet the world-famous artist of the '60s (and today) Peter Max.

Party time: Farmington businessman Jereis and Diana Webb of Orchard Lake enjoy event.

MAY IS OLDER AMERICANS MONTH

In May we also celebrate Nurses Day. The residents, families and entire staff of Peachwood Inn and Borden Court want to take this opportunity to tell the 35 nurses at Peachwood and Borden Court just how much they are truly appreciated. Their dedication to their profession and the loving concern they express in so many ways, is very important to all of us. They are friends as well as healers.

We thank our nurses and we bless them.
