

Cranbrook classes focus on spring photography

Cranbrook P.M. is sponsoring spring photography classes conducted by Monte Nagler, a student of the late Ansel Adams and full-time photographer, teacher and Observer & Eccentric Newspapers columnist.

For information and registration, call Cranbrook P.M. at 645-3635.

Nagler will conduct an intensive three-part photography seminar and workshop leading to the creation of a photographic journal using the beautiful architecture and extraordinary vistas of Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills. Fee is $48. Enrollment is limited.

Session I will be 7-10 p.m. Wednesday, May 27, indoors at Gordon Hall to explain some of the finer points of good photography: depth of field, exposure, films, filters and composition.

In Session II, 12:30-5 p.m. Saturday, May 30, participants will meet outside in the gardens surrounding Cranbrook House. In Session III, 7-10 p.m. Wednesday, June 10, they will meet back in Gordon Hall on the Cranbrook School campus for a critiquing session of students' photographs. Time will be allowed for a question-and-answer period.

An advanced photography class, 7-10 p.m. Wednesday, June 17, at Cranbrook House, is a continuation of the beginner classes above. Fee is $25. Enrollment is limited.

Bloomin' Rochester art fair events drawing near

The Point Creek Center for the Arts will sponsor an outdoor Bloomin' Rochester art fair 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, May 30, at the intersection of Fourth and Walnut in downtown Rochester.

This invitational show will feature Michigan artists who use flowers, gardens, garden sculpture and related subjects. Thirty-five artists from Petoskey to Rochester will offer flower paintings, nature photographs, bird and fish sculpture, pottery, planters, wind chimes, jewelry, wearable art and more.

The PCCA art fair will be one of many activities that comprise the daylong event, "Bloomin' Rochester: A Festival of Art and Flowers," sponsored by the Downtown Rochester Promotion and Marketing Partnership.

Additional art activities will include an outdoor ceramic firing and indoor art demonstrations at the PCCA, 407 Pine, one block west of the art fair. Weather permitting, all ages may try chalk painting on the sidewalk in front of the center between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. The PCCA will supply the chalk.

"A Glimpse of Rochester: Past and Present Floral Exhibit" by the Rochester branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will be on display in the PCCA's upstairs Main Gallery, May 28-30.

Admission is free. For more information about the Bloomin' Rochester art fair and art activities, call the PCCA at 651-4110 between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, May 28-30.

Furniture designers, artists decorate show house

Scott Shuprine Furniture designers have been selected to decorate the great hall area of the Junior League of Detroit's 1992 Designer Show House, a magnificent 26-room Grosse Pointe Tudor built in 1918 by Joseph Jeremah and Jennie E. Crowley.

In conjunction with the show house, Detroit Focus Gallery is presenting "Sculpture in the Garden," an exhibition of art in an outdoor setting. The display encompasses a variety of media, including ceramic, stone, metal and wood; and a range of artistic styles. Participating artists are Mark Chatterly, Jerome Ferretti, Gary S. Griffin, Gary Kulik, Charles McGee, Tim Phardel, Robert Sestok, Lois Teicher, Hugh Timlin, Joseph Wesner and Gary Zych.

The show house is at 243 Lakeland, adjacent to the house of Joseph's brother, Daniel, co-founder of Crowley, Milner and Co. It will be open to the public to May 31. Hours are 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday-Friday, 6:30-8:30 p.m. Sunday, and Memorial Day, 6:30-8:30 p.m. Wednesday-Friday. No children under 8 admitted.

Tickets are available through the Junior League of Detroit at 881-0040. Tickets are $10 at the door and $6 for groups of 15 or more.

THE HOUSE'S dramatic great hall area includes the foyer, warming room and main staircase.

"The masters' feeling of this unique space suggested replication of the great halls found in Europe," said Pat Zaitz, buyer and designer for Scott Shuprine. "With this in mind, we wanted to create an area that is reminiscent of a rich and opulent English estate. However, at the same time, we wanted to add a warmer, fresher feeling that will welcome and embrace visitors to the show house."

Music Study Club slates installation luncheon

The annual installation luncheon of the Music Study Club of Metropolitan Detroit will take place at noon Thursday, June 4, at Temple Beth El, Telegraph at 14 Mile in Birmingham.

There is a charge for the luncheon. Guests may attend. For information, call Joan Rose at 543-2036. The musical portion of the program will feature Miriam Holowsky, cellist, and Karen Koch, pianist.

The nominating committee has recommended the following slate to be elected and installed:

Bernice Pinsky, president; Elaine Kuper, first vice president; Mildred Churnas, second vice president; Janet Ross, recording secretary; Ann Brog, corresponding secretary; Rose Mandelbaum, financial secretary; Matilde Georgehlade, treasurer; Tillie Schlöwen, Ann Steinberg and Betty Weiss, two-year terms on the board of directors; and Marilyn Ash, Pat Stubbe and Mimmi Summers, one-year terms on the board of directors.
