

All-stars gather for annual awards

HARRISON

Once each year, the all-stars get together for their annual award banquet.

The Metrostaff Hall of Fame Classic and the Strohs Beer All Star Traveling Classic Leagues convened last week at the Polish Country Club.

The Metrostaff League bowls at Thunderbolt Lanes in Allen Park. The Traveling League is here, there and everywhere.

Crowned champs from the Strohs Spring League were the Anstas Big Boy team. Members included: Ken Wyatt, Southfield; Niznio Marino, Livonia; Paul Gmazer, Westland; Tony Stipek, Redford; Ken Kossick, Canton; Nick Wissinger, Sterling Heights.

The special award for sportsmanship was presented to Lou Brightman, who has many years of competitive bowling under his belt.

Brightman is always cheerful and friendly towards those he comes in contact with.

The King of the Bowlers award went to Bob Chamberlain of Auburn Heights, while Mark Moore was named Rookie of the Year.

Moore, fresh from Youth League competition, averaged 217 and 211 in two leagues. He also tallied a pair of perfect games.

The high series in the Travel League was an 805 by Ed Karwinski at Westland Bowl.

• Town and Country Lanes in Westland has a Fathers Day special. If you bring your dad, he bowls for free and you pay the open bowling rate.

Another way to bowl for free is to tear off the coupon on Butterball Sliced Turkey packages. They are honored at most local bowling centers.

• In cooperation with the Westland Parks and Recreation Department, Flota Lanes is running a Learn to Bowl program for kids.

The action starts on June 15. They are 10-week sessions at the low cost of $4 per session. There is a small registration fee. For more information call 722-1450.

Rockets ousted in Class A semifinals, 2-1

By BRAD ENOSS STAFF WRITER

Westland's John Glenn's trip to Battle Creek for the Class A baseball finals was short-lived thanks to the work of a cerebral killer.

Brandon Reed was the culprit Friday as he led Lapeer West to a 2-1 victory over the Rockets in the state semifinals held in Kelllogg's country, or Nichols Field to be exact. The execution was brief as the game lasted only one hour and 40 minutes.

The junior right-hander was murder on Glenn. His profile read sharp fastball mixed in with a deadly curveball.

Reed allowed only four hits, two walks and struck out nine in running his season record to 12-1.

"He's not overpowering like some of the other kids we've faced, but he was good," said Glenn coach Norm Huenes, whose other trip to the state semifinals also ended in a one-run loss, 0-0 defeat in 1988 to Birmingham's Brother Rice. "He was one of the best we've seen because of his craftiness. He kept it away from us and his control was right up there."

Reed, 16, 160 pounds, outduelled Glenn junior Aaron Scheffer (6-5), the latter whom pitched a fine game in his own right, scattering six hits and two walks over seven innings. First hit of game.

Glenn's Bobby Hayes collected the game's first hit when he tripled with two outs, but senior second baseman had to exit early after rejoining his lower back. Pitcher-rear Jamie Buford was ultimately left stranded.

Catcher Scott Bradshaw, who proved to be another killer for Glenn, doubled off Scheffer with one out in the top of the fourth to collect the Panthers' first hit. He later scored on Reed's single.

In the bottom of the inning, Glenn put two runners aboard with no outs when Scheffer singled and Ward walked, but Reed got out of trouble by retiring Derek Besco, Taysy Farley and Mike Bint in order.

"I wasn't going to hunt with him (Besco) up," said Huenes of his sophomore cleanup man. "I felt we had a good shot with him swinging away."

"He swung the bats tentatively and their pitcher threw the curve to keep us off balance. He also moved the ball well up and down."

Lapeer West added a run in the sixth when Brad Patheys reached base on an infield error, stole second and advanced to third on a Glenn throwing miscue, one of four errors on the day.

Bradshaw, a squatly 5-7 catcher with a rifle arm and a .674 batting average, then drove Patheys home with a single, his second hit of the day.

"He (Bradshaw) is the best all-around player I've ever had," Lapeer West coach Tim Bradley said. "In 150 at-bats he only has had four strikeouts."

The Panthers threatened to blow the game open in the seventh, leading the buses with no outs on a pair of singles and a walk, but Scheffer struck out pinch-hitter Ron Johnson, ninth hitter Beau Buzzell and got Patheys on a groundout to end the threat.

With Glenn staring at its first shutout of the season, Besco opened the seventh by ripping a Reed fastball over the 330-foot mark in left field for a solo homer.

Reed followed by getting pinch-hitter Brian Besco to ground out to second, but sophomore Mike Bint lined a shot off the left field fence, just narrowly missing a homer.

But the burly Glenn sophomore was held to a single as West left fielder Byron Townsend quickly grabbed the carom off the fence and got the ball back quickly into the infield.

"It was a fastball inside and I thought it was out," Bint said. "I thought it was gone for sure. We didn't see a lot of fastballs. It was tough to detect his (Reed's) fastball from his curve. We were told to sit on the fastball."

Kaczynski said of the Tim Bradley-coached Panthers, "Lapeer West is a well-coached team and they came back like champions. They deserve a lot of credit themselves."

Senior Tim McKeene clubbed the key hit of the inning, a three-run double.

In typical fashion for the bizare,
