EXERCISE BUFFS

Students at Larkshire Elementary

recently participated in a nationwide physical fitness event called ACES — All Children Exercise Simultaneously. The aerobic workout for the 453 students, teachers and support personnel lasted 20 minutes and was led by fourth grade teacher Lori Hay.

SCHOLAR ATHLETES
Harrison students Benjamin Pinsky and Julia Ritter were recently awarded the U.S. Army Reserve National Scholar Athlete Award. The award is presented annually by the U.S. Army Reserve to high school students who have shown outstanding ability in both academics and athletics. Harrison principal Clayton Graham presented the two students with bronze Olympic-style scholar athlete medals at a June 4 school ceremony. The reserve program has presented the awards since 1982. Each year, teachers, coaches and administrators from more than 12,000 high schools nationwide choose some 20,000 students as recipients.

Winners: Carly Frances Francavilla, 3½ months, won the contest for babies to 6 months.
