Shannon Wilkinson, Steven-son, forward: Wilkinson made the necessary step this season, improv-ing enough to move up from the 1991 all-state second team to first-

1991 all-state second team to first-team status, Like Coyne and Gloson, site, too, was all-MLA4 (for the past two years; Coyne and Gloson were three-time selections). Her statistics were certainly solid enough: 14 goals and 10 assists as the Spartans' center striker. For her career, Wilkinson netted 48 goals and assisted on 35 others.

and assisted on 35 others.
According to Spartan coach Mary Kay Hussey, one of her greatest assets was "mer speed with the ball;
her level of shill while with the ball;
bet level of shill while with the ball;
bet it wasn't her only attribute.
Wilkinson proved her versaulity, during the state tournament. When sweeper Tracy Morrell was injured, Wilkinson took over. "She can play anywhere on the field, but I think she likes playing striker the best. And she's very good at it."
Wilkinson town will attend, and play
soccer, at MSU this fail.

Kris Goff, Salom, midfield: Goff accomplished quite a bit in a year.

A junior midfielder, Goff was an honorable mention all-Observer selection in '91. She improved enough this season to earn a borth on the all-WLAA team and the all-state year career.

According to Salem coach Ken Johnson, Goff's greatest attribute may have been her stamina. "Kins
was a full-game player," he said.
"She played every minute of every game. She reads the field well and passes the ball well."

John Wolchans, Canton, Keepers, A major reason for the Chiefs' success this season — a WLAA championship and a betti in the Class A finals — was due to Welchans ability in goal.

A junior, she surrendered just logals in 21 matches (0,48 goalsagainst average) white registering 13 shiftouts. In three seasons, Welchans has recorded 33 shutouts and has allowed just 32 goals in 55
games.

"Jon is a dedicated goal keeper," said Canton coach Smith. "She works very hard on her goal keeping skills, and is willing to do whatever necessary to keep the ball out of the Leah Butkle, Conton, forward: What 'Smith liked most about this pinor forward's play was her ability to rise to the occasion. "Leah's tenacious play throughout.

"teah's tenacous play throughout, the season, and her willinghress to do whatever necessary for the team's success, has earned her, this honor of all area," he said, "She is a biggare, player and a treat to our team."

Also an nonor roll member, Hutko scored 14 goals for the Chers and assisted on four others. In her three year career, she has 24 goals and 11 assists.

Shea provided leadership for Franklin that won't be easily replaced, according to Patriot coach Joe Galea.

An all-WLAA pick the past three

An all-WLAA pick the post three seasons, Shoa was second-leain all-state in '91. She secored 10 goals and assisted on 11 others this season, bangary her career total to 38 goals scored. "Pattl Shoa is an agglessive all-around player," said dialea. "She is a hard worker, with tremendous soccer skills. Pattl will 'sorely be missed for her leadership and dedication to the game. Shoa is badded to the University of Dayton this fall.
