FAITH SHOWS YOUR FATHER HAVING THE RIGHT ANSWERS

Your father had to be a sage
To help you through your childhood stage,
And all the wisdom he'd impart
Convinced you he was pretty smart.
He'd tell of his experience,
While building up your confidence
That whether you'd succeed or fail,
Your common sense would still prevail.
Then later, without thinking twice,
You chose to spurn his good advice,
Because of pressure from your peers,
But then, as you advanced in years,
You learned that in his whole life through,
Your father did his best for you,
So faith will tell you, come what may,
To honor him on Father's Day.

-Gloria Newark

A father is a man who expects his son to be as good a man as he means to be.
