

Contest offers a video slice of life

LARK SAMOUELIAN

"A Day in the Life" is a video contest initiated by Cable Access Committee member, Mark Adler. All residents of Novi, Farmington and Farmington Hills are encouraged to videotape a single day in your very own home town.

The videos must be a maximum of 20 minutes long and include your titles and credits. There are many community members to this event.

Prizes have been made available. For example, Grand prize, $300; Second prize, six free pay-per-view movies sponsored by MetroVision of Oakland County; Third prize, one free pay-per-view movie sponsored by MetroVision of Oakland County and winner at Victor's Novel Inn.

Entry forms for the contest must be filled in by August 31. You are given much more time, however, to videotape your contest footage because the tape deadline is not until Nov. 6. The entire contest is being sponsored by MetroVision of Oakland County, Southwestern Oakland Cable Commission and Suzuki, Myers and Associates.

If you have any more questions or for information, call Mark Adler at SWOCC, 473-7266 or Joan Lillie at MetroVision, 553-7303. If you see any of your Cable Access Committee representatives around town be sure to stop and say Hi and tell them about your ideas. They are: Mark Adler, Carol Bauer, Larry Buhner, Terry Dean, Clara Urban Lawrence, Pat Isham, Jeannie Liming, James K. Mitchell and Wayne Windel.
