'Barbarella' Satire Is Jane's Thing

"Barbarella" has Jane Fonda in the title role, doing her thing in various ways and several degrees of undress. The marquee of the La Parisien in Garden City invites you to see her doing her thing.

Taken in the right spirit, this satirical treatment of our society's sexual awakening stress the sexual action as a mock serious treatment of a highly provocative subject.

Jane Fonda romps in the all-together to get the film off to a titillating start. Beginning the cinematic action with a nude scene could make the movie a series of lurid scenes in which more of Miss Fonda's body will be exposed. But with the opening nude scene only sets the tempo and ground rules for a zesty comedy laced with broad satirical jabotus sex-oriented society.

"Barbarella" relates the highly imaginative adventures of a female F.B.I. agent of the

Kendallarks Have Openings For Sopranos

For the first time in many seasons, the Kendallarks, Farmington's women choral group, have an opening for soprano singers.

Those with an interest in music with some vocal experience, should call Joyce Gregory, 476-3763, for further information.

Arrangements for appearance by the Kendallarks may also be made by calling Mrs. Gregory.

Art Exhibition Opens At Mall

More than 800 examples of the work of Michigan artists will be displayed in the Livonia Mall from Oct. 24 through Nov. 2.

Michigan artists and craftsmen will exhibit paintings, sculpture, hand-made jewelry, hand-crafted glass, decoupage, folk art, pottery, hand-tooled leather, ceramics and other crafts.

A feature of the show will be a group of portrait artists and caricaturists.

The Mall is open until 9 p.m. with the exception of Tuesdays and Wednesdays.
