Judith Conn Is Bride

Judith Conn and William David Waterston exchanged marriage vows in an evening candlelight ceremony Saturday, May 29, in the First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Conn of Elm Street, Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Neilson of Terrence Avenue, Livonia, are parents of the bridegroom.

Dr. Henry Walch officiated.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of cameo ivory silk organzine faille and pearl-frosted peau d'ange lace. The gown had an empire bodice, chapel train and long, tapered sleeves.

Deep scallops of alencon lace trimmed the full-length mantilla veil that fell from a tiny lace cap, and the bride carried stephanotis and ivy in a colonial arrangement.

Jean MacCurdy was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were the bride's three sisters, Jann, Jolie and Jerja Conn. All wore long voile dresses in a floral print with deep pink predominating. They carried colonial bouquets of sweetheart roses and bachelor buttons with long streamers of deep pink ribbon.

ROBERT WATERSTON, the bridegroom's brother, came from Chicago to be best man.

Steven Morrison of Midland, Lance Albert of Hinsdale, Ill., and Wayne Paulson of Livonia, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Mrs. Conn wore a moss green silk worsted gown with a jeweled waistline, and Mrs. Neilson's gown was made of pink and beige hand-embroidered just cloth she predominating. They carried colonial bouquets of sweetheart roses and bachelor buttons with long streamers of deep pink ribbon.

THE COUPLE greeted 200 guests in a reception at the Meadowbrook Country Club before leaving on a honeymoon trip to Montreal and New England.

They will live in Ann Arbor, where both are University of Michigan students.

The new Mrs. Waterston is a senior in the school of nursing and a member of Alpha Phi sorority. Her husband is working on his master's degree in architecture and affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

I've found someone who really understands me in Canned Ego

Someone who understand the REAL me. Someone who knows how I see myself; how I like my hair—shining, natural, bouncy. That Someone is my haircutter. I get what I want; a really good haircut—whether it's a tiny trim or a new short style. I get a conditioner when I need one and always an 'unsal' kind of set. All in Canned Ego—where there's great snipping, no tipping, no advance appointments. Come see what I mean.
