Smith is undecided.

But what about the head man?
"I've applied throughout the U.S." he said. He's also in considcration for a couple of conching jobs at Canadian colleges.
But time is running out. He knows it; Danshue is facing a winter without coaching for the first time in 31 years.
He is left to sit in his office, wondering how this happened. "I don't know how they can justify it," he says when pondering the decision nade by St. Mary's Board of Trus-ces. "I'm still in shock. In no way do I know of any reason why they dropped it."

What about a lack of finances? What about a lack of finances? "That's casson," he answers in disbelief. "The more I hink of it, the more confused I get. This was an ideal situation. They were all achieving academically." He used to love his job at St. Mary's. He was up early and in the office by 8 a.m., often staying until the evening bours. Unless it was a came day, of course—then he game day, of course - then he might not get home until nearly midnight.

It's different now. "This has been a very, very devastating experience for me," Donahue said. "I'm still for me," Denance said.

"We have a father-son basketball camp coming up in mid-August (21-23) and another camp Aug. 9-13. I'd like to clear out of here after that first camp.

"I want to get out of here. It's a traumatic experience for me just to come in every day. I'd like to find another job and just..."
He waves good-bye. After giving so much, it's no wonder he feels betrayed.

"He'n got all sorts of potential if he becomes a man instead of a boy. He's not established yet, but I think he will be."

Other redshirts are Mark Gilbrith, 6-3 from Clarkston; Craig Martin, 6-0 from Rochester Hills Oakland Christlan; and Tom Bradley (6-0) and Bill Sects (6-4), both from Waterford Mott.

Incoming freshmen who have impressed Reed are Grep Palmer (6-0) and Rocco Santla (6-4), both from Orchard Lake St. Mary's Curtis Long, 5-2 from Jackson ("He's small; but really, really quict"); Rob Kreger, a 6-6 transfer from Maccomb CC (Rource HS); Ron Gracey, 6-6; and Sylvester Rochelle, 6-0 from Pontiac Central.

There are a few others who could make it as well: Will Marcoux, 6-6 from Redford Catholic Central; Marvin Sibert, 6-0 from Sterling Heights Stevenson; Kevin Champi-on, 6-4 from Westland John Glenn; and Mike Bolling, 6-6 from Milford-

In case you're counting, that's 15 players who didn't play at OCC last year but have interested Reed so far. Others are still being wood, and more could join the fray.

The scoring load, Reed hopes, will be showthed by Martin (who led Oakland County in scoring his sen lor year at Oakland Christian), Palmer and Kreger, Kreger, too, must pass classes this summer to be eligible.

"Palmer and Martin can both score, and in a variety of ways," Reed said. That's something that was lacking last season: "We didn't have a lot of good shooters leave," he admitted.

Rebounding should improve, too, particularly if Grarcy (the welghs 230). Kreger and Santia — St. Mary's MWP last season—make it. But Reed knows a lot could change by November. "I think we're an upproven lot right now," he said. "There's a lot of talent, but we've got a lot of questions and a lot of kids who are unproven."
