Most today say the first spiritual law is "God loves you and has a wonderful plan for your life." God hasn't post that message on the outside of the ark? Did the angels tell that to the men of Sodom? We worship the God of the Bible. Come worship His glorious name with us.

FAMILIES CAN STAY UNITED DESPITE THE GENERATION GAP

As more and more activities occupy our lives, they tend to leave family members with very little "quality time" to spend together, recounting the day's events and discussing their problems. This is particularly true of the children, who when they are younger tell Mom and Dad everything that happened in school and elsewhere. However, it has little effect on the teenagers when they reach those double digits and begin living in a world of their own anyway, and Mom and Dad learn to accept it. This generation gap is hard to bridge, but it does help if the family can get together on the sabbath day and attend the House of Worship. The home should be the center of love, happiness and security, and the lessons of faith can be the best reminder of it.

My family has been the source of my greatest joys.
-George Bush

"His household... shall keep the way of the Lord."
-Genesis 18:19
