

Now it's time to help

Forced out of their homes by Hurricane Andrew, more than 100,000 people have found refuge in American Red Cross shelters in Florida, Louisiana, Texas, and Mississippi since the storm hit on Monday, August 24, 1992.

Disaster assistance offered by the Red Cross also includes paying for what they need most—from groceries, new clothing and rent, to emergency home repairs, transportation and household items. This assistance is given free—as a gift from the American people.

Therefore, the Red Cross is appealing to the general public for assistance in the form of financial contributions. To contribute to the disaster relief, send a check or money order to:

Bank card contributions can be made by calling 1-800-842-2200. For corporation or business donations, call 833-2632. All donations will go directly for the relief of disaster victims.

Note: Because of the great need to provide basic needs to disaster victims and the changing face of the disaster situation, the Red Cross has placed a moratorium on tracing requests. When this moratorium is lifted, the Red Cross will assist people in locating their friends and family members in the hurricane areas.
