Many churches teach that the lost cannot be saved and believe the gospel is lost given the chance to hear it. But the Bible Paul taught that "the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness" (1 Cor. 1:18). The only ones that appreciate hearing the Gospel are those that are ALREADY saved! (1 Cor. 1:18-24). If you're interested in hearing more about the true purpose of the gospel and preaching, come worship with us.

YOUR HOUSE OF WORSHIP CAN HELP SOLVE YOUR PROBLEMS

Life brings problems to all of us; to ourselves, to some close relative, or to a dear friend. These can involve health, finances, human relationships and many other things, and we must decide what if anything we can do about them. If ordinary common sense cannot provide the answer, we should seek the appropriate source of professional help. However, we should also seek guidance at our House of Worship. Attend it regularly if you are not already doing so, and talk to your clergyman. You will feel the comfort of his advice and his prayers for you, reminding you that God is watching over you and will help you or the other person either overcome those problems or learn to cope with them. You will then learn for yourself that this the greatest reward of faith: a better life.

The first step in solving a problem is to tell someone about it.
