West Bloomfield Karen Lutz, Helen Wachler and Annette Kolon chaired the successful evening, with Manuel's (West Bloomfield), Ristorante Di Modeta (Southfield), Bonnie's Patisserie (Southfield), Weight Watchers (Farmington Hills) and Merchant of Vino (Southfield), to name a few, donating their time and food, to wine and dine the crowd with edible specialties, for JDF.

Karen Lutz's stepdaughter, Jodi, was unable to attend the birthday bash. Jodi is in the hospital with diabetic complications.

"That's why we're so involved," said Karen Lutz. Dr. Richard Lutz serves on the board for JDF.

Farmington Hills resident Margo Salyer, events coordinator for the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, informed me of another exciting event, Dec. 9. The "Miracles to 34th Street, Holiday Shopping Spree." Locals will depart Detroit at 8 a.m. and arrive at New York's LaGuardia Airport at 9:20 a.m. Macy's will provide free bus transportation to its store. A meal will be included, by Broadway Play Matinee's fabulous New York deli. Roundtrip costs are $160.

Three former flight attendants — Lorraine Schultz, Margaret Schubert and Margo Salyer are chairing the shop-till-you-drop fund-raiser.

Jacobson's display manager and gourmet chef Bob Mounsey will be off to Africa to be the official chef for a group of traveling Michiganans who prefer the Mounsey's culinary delights instead of unfamiliar native cuisine of the jungles.

River rhythm

Local admirals, captains and ensigns were dressed in blue and white nautical attire to attend the "Riverhythm" fund-raiser Friday night benefiting the Mariners Inn (home for homeless and the alcoholic and chemically addicted).

Donald and Val Bortz, Jr., took beneficiaries on a wonderful cruise along the river, with dinner and dancing at the Roostertail in Detroit immediately following the voyage.

Betty Gerisch chaired the benefit, with committee members Jeanne Heller Bourget, Arthur Brown, Julie Bueala, Tim and Judy Duff, Michael Duffy, Bernard Parker and Jacqueline Thomas. Most popular items in the silent auction were the exquisite Chanel jewelry, purse and perfume items.

Southfield's Golden Mushroom; West Bloomfield's Maria's; R.L.K.'s, the Restaurant, of West Bloomfield, and Waldeed's of Farmington Hills are among the local eateries that will delight your taste buds.
