

Don't take our word for it... and don't say we didn't warn you!

Congress is about to vote on a "cable regulation" bill that will massively increase cable costs . . . but they're calling it a "consumer bill!" Welcome to election year hype. The facts:

- The Boston Globe states that "consumers would be the ultimate victims."
- The Atlanta Journal calls the legislation a "consumer's nightmare."
- The St. Paul Pioneer Press reports that the bill includes "provisions that are anything but consumer protection."
- The Chicago Tribune says "it could end up costing cable subscribers."

Other major newspapers across the country are saying the same thing. The only way to stop government-mandated increased cable costs is to call or write your Senators and Congressman immediately. Ask them to vote against this anti-consumer cable bill:
