

Freedom essay contest set

The Breakfast Optimist of Farmington/Farmington Hills will hold an Essay Contest on the subject of "Freedom: Our Responsibility to Preserve" beginning in this month.

All high school seniors, juniors, and sophomores are eligible to participate according to Sheldon Eizen, club co-chairman for the event.

The local club will select a first, second and third-place winner in its contest, and the first-place entry will be entered in the district competition where it will be judged against other club winning entries from the state of Michigan.

The first-place district winner will receive an expense paid four day trip to the Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge for a conference on the subject of freedom.

Entries must be original, completed by the contestants without assistance, and submitted by Dec. 1. For further information, contact Sheldon Eizen at 367-2424 or Dunne Reynolds at 469-8520.

Tree lighting ceremony planned at Fisher

The public is invited to join the children and the staff of the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center for the second-annual Tree Lighting Ceremony on Sunday, Dec. 6, at 5:30 p.m.

The large evergreen tree is on the grounds of the Center at 12 Mile and Inkster roads in Farmington Hills. It will be transformed into a giant Christmas tree to celebrate the season.

Joining the crowd to sing and lead the caroling will be the choir from St. Cecelia's parish in Detroit. Hot chocolate, coffee and cookies will be available to help warm the visitors.

The St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center is a non-profit agency providing residential care and treatment to children who are in need of care due to emotional problems caused by abuse and neglect.

The agency also provides foster homes and adoption planning for special needs children, in addition to services for pregnant teens and young single mothers and their babies.

Operated by the Daughters of Charity, the center serves more than 250 young people and their families on a daily basis.

Meet The New Doctor In Town

Did you know that becoming certified as a chiropractor requires a minimum of six years of highly specialized college training?

Hi, I'm Dr. Gary J. Holland, D.C.

Today's Doctor of Chiropractic must complete 4,485 hours of classroom instruction and pass a rigid chiropractic board examination before earning a license. In most states, continuing educational seminars must be completed for annual license renewal.

This is the kind of training and professionalism I offer you. If you have hesitated visiting a chiropractor, perhaps you didn't know that chiropractors go to such lengths to continue their education and provide you with the latest techniques and the most qualified service. So you see, what you don't know, can't help you. Call me today and let me help you.

Did you know that the symptoms most commonly treated by chiropractors are:

BACK PAIN HEADACHES PAINFUL JOINTS
NECK PAIN ARTHRITIS SHOULDER PAIN
STIFFNESS BURSITIS ARM/LEG PAIN
NUMBNESS HIP PAIN COLD HANDS/FEET
