Shirley (in a gold-trimmed black knit dress) and Frank Piku of Orchard Lake hosted the opening night holiday show Nov. 17, this year benefitting the Center for Creative Studies scholarship program. Serving on the honorary committee were Wendell Anderson Jr., Keith Crain, Frank Couzens Jr., William Dahling, Pete Dow, Alfred J. Fisher III and Henrietta Fridholm.

■ 'Dick's sick, and Susan's shopping' joked chairman Shirley Piku while watching her friend Susan Lanciault fill her basket with holiday gifts.

Roz & Sherm

A breathtaking collection of jewels by Christopher Walling were on display (and for sale) at Roz & Sherm's beautifully remodeled fashion emporium in Bloomfield Township.

A substantial portion of the sales went to benefit the Detroit Institute of Arts. Walling's designs have been sold to Elizabeth Taylor, who was rumored to recently buy a Walling six-figure fantasy design.

Busy workers: At the home of Jan and Buzz Silverman, Lynn Thomas (left) and SuSu Sosnick spend the day on Haven invitations.

Haven happening

Don't miss the fifth annual Promenade of Hope Celebrity Fashion Show, Monday, Dec. 7, at the Troy Marriott Hotel. A silent auction of autographed sports memorabilia and dinner is included in the benefit that helps victims of domestic violence and sexual assault.

Runway hearthrobs will include Barry Sanders, Eli Zaret, Isaiah Thomas, Rich Fisher, Guy Gordon, Chris Spiveaux, Benny McClain, Carmen Harlan, Diana Lewis and more. Call Haven at 334-1274 for reservations.

Runway headline: Stealing the show at the St. Jude Children's Hospital Fashion Show, 3-year-old Justina Hickey makes her runway debut with Lydia Moore.

Sing-along

The Women's Committee of Oakland Family Services annual Sing-along at the Machus Sly Fox in Birmingham also is slated for Dec. 7. Flip a coin and go to one of these fun-filled events. Call Oakland Family Services, 858-7766, for reservations. Guy Gordon is scheduled to emcee the evening. How will Guy be at the sing-along at the Haven, fashion show and on the air, all in one night? What a guy!

St. Jude fashion show luncheon

Edna Slavik and Carmel Carson co-chaired the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital ALSAC fashion show at the Ritz-Carlton, Dearborn.

Receiving howls from the lunching women were media personalities WKBD's Roger McCoy, Kevin Scollin (W4 country), Joe Weaver, Chris Edwards, Jim Davis, Emil Luzajich, Dave Schaffer and Larry "Doc" Elliott, sporting apparel from Steve Petix and Dittrich Furs.

Callie Lynn Northagen and Chuck Gaidien commented the show that included career and after-five fashions from Eleganza Boutique, Barbara Hadley, Lydia Moore, Beverly Holcomb and Robin Rhodes worked the runway along with a first-time model, 3-year-old Justina Hickey, who stole the show wearing a Carrier and Yves red wool coat, strolling with an antique-like baby carriage.
