

Cecily Spitler Is Bride

A nuptial high mass in Divine Child Catholic Church, Dearborn, united Cecily Jeanne Spitler and Clarence John Chappie in marriage May 21.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald G. Spitler Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chappie, all of Dearborn.

Msgr. Herbert Weiler officiated, and the Divine Child High School choral group sang for the service.

ESORTED to the altar by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of ivory imported organza with bodice and sleeves of Santache lace.

A dome headpiece held her cathedral length veil edged in alenca lace, and she carried white roses, baby's breath and stephanotis.

Mrs. Michael Kalis of Ann Arbor was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Gerald G. Spitler III of Westland, sister-in-law of the bride; Madeline Chappie of Detroit, sister of the bridegroom; Colleen Currin of Dearborn Heights, cousin of the bride; Ellen Veriunk of Southfield; Mrs. Patrick Gleason of Birmingham and Virginia Snabes of Dearborn.

Their Paris blue floor-length gowns were accented with gold braiding, and they carried empire bouquets of mixed flowers in shades of blue, lime, lavender and purple.

BEST MAN was Dennis Schultz of Detroit. The ushers were Gerald G. Spitler III of Westland and Michael Spitler of Dearborn, brothers of the bride; Gregory Chappie of Detroit, brother of the bridegroom; Thomas Molich and John McLaughlin of Detroit; Raymond Paciotti of Dearborn Heights; and Richard Sajacki of Allen Park.

Mrs. Spitler wore a lime green imported chiffon gown, and Mrs. Chappie was in pink. The reception and dinner dance for 500 guests was held in the Sheraton-Metro Inn in Romulus. The Natural Gass band provided the music.

The couple went to Florida for a two-week honeymoon and will live in Southfield. The bride is a graduate of Mercy School of Nursing and is employed by Providence Hospital. She also was 1971 queen for the Ski Angels Ski Club. The bridegroom attended Michigan State University.

East Coast Trip Follows Rites

A honeymoon trip to the east coast followed the May 8 wedding of Kathleen K. Elliott and Reginald C. Taulbee Jr. of Garden City.

A reception was held in the American Legion Hall in Garden City.

The couple have taken up residence in Belleville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elliott of Elmwood Street, Garden City, and the bridegroom is the son of Reginald Taulbee, also of Garden City.

The Rev. Dean Beckwith officiated at the double ring ceremony in Good Hope Lutheran Church.

THE BRIDE WORE an empire style gown of satin. The bodice was embroidered with lace and seed pearls and long sleeves. The cathedral length train was trimmed with lace and sequins. Her crown of seed pearls and sequins held a shoulder length nylon veil and she carried a cascade of roses, miniature carnations and stephanotis.

Karen Elliott, as her sister's maid of honor, wore a cherry pink gown of dotted swiss in an empire style with a high neckline and long sleeves. The bodice and sleeves were trimmed with lace. The attendants wore matching gowns in lilac.

They were Darlene Elliott, of Plymouth, the bride's sister-in-law; Lila Elliott of Northfield, Ohio, the bride's cousin; Linda Witzka of Westland; and Kimberly Elliott, the bride's sister.

All the attendants carried nosegays of pink lilies, white daisies and baby's breath.

Vickie Keyandwy of Detroit was the flower girl and David Combs of Dearborn Heights, the bride's cousin, was the ring bearer.

PAUL SCHAFFER of Garden City was best man. The ushers were William Elliott, of Plymouth, the bride's brother, Jerry Iabell of Plymouth, Donald Taulbee of Westland, the bridegroom's brother, and Steven Moore of Ypsilanti.

The bride's mother wore a yellow A-line chiffon over taffeta gown with a white lace collar and white lace trim and white accessories.

Bride's Slippers Are Grandmother's

Janis Good wore her grandmother's wedding slippers and carried her great-grandmother's wedding handkerchief when she exchanged nuptial vows June 12 with John William Porath, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Porath of Farmington.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Good of Dearborn.

Porath of Grand Haven and Debra Clickner of Dearborn.

PETER DROLET was best man and Bruce Hariton, David Porath and Robert Porath were ushers.

The reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

The couple will live in Spokane, where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Air Force. Both are graduates of Eastern Michigan University.
